"22nd Jul 1916, Boulogne. As you have probably heard by now, I have been wounded. It is only a slight one though. A piece of shrapnel hit me on the right thigh, but beyond a bit of soreness and bruise, it did no damage. I am now in a Convalescent Campat Boulogne and having a good spell. Two Corporals of my Company are here too as well as a lot of men. You will have seen the Casualty List by this. We are not allowed to write letters from here, only cards.

Since last writing our crowd have had a rather exciting and strenuous time. As I said in my letter we were going to take part in a big attack. Well, we did – I didn't because I was hit while we were waiting in the trenches for the word to go over the parapet. Our artillery were giving the enemy a bad time, but about half an hour before the attack was to come off, the enemy began to bombard us with shrapnel and high explosive shells. We did get a bad time, I tell you. If we went into dugouts, we ran the risk of being buried by a high explosive shell, or if we did not, shrapnel had a go at us! I was hit about a quarter of an hour afterwards, the same shell got about a dozen other chaps near me. There was one continual hail of dirt and metal and I don't know how any one escaped being hit. Anyhow when the time came, 'Tiveys chocs' hopped over into a hail of shrapnel and machine gun bullets. They advanced and took three lines of trenches without opposition. The enemy artillery drove them out, however, and I have not heard whether our lads got back again or not. I believe Col Toll was great and inspired great confidence in the men. I think he came through alright. I spent one night at No 2 Casualty Clearing Station."

Discharged fit to Base Depot, on 27th Jul 1916
 Transferred to Etaples, on 28th Jul 1916
 Matched in to 5th ADBD, Etaples, from hospital, on 28th Jul 1916

 Promoted 2nd/ Lieut on 30th Aug 1916

"France, 4th Sep 1916. The birthday cakes have not come to light yet. They are with the 31st Comforts Fund, aren't they? I do not think any of these have arrived yet. The Twiy fund seems to be working well now. The Victorians do well in the parcel line and in addition we get cakes etc. One tin to two and so forth. Gee why I've forgotten the only piece of news I had. We are now 15 miles away from the firing line having a 'blow' and learning wood-fighting at the same time. It is a great change after the trench warfare and so far, has been quite interesting. I dare say it will get monotonous sooner or later though. We are now camped in the centre of a big forest and go out for manoeuvres each day."

"France, 28th May 1918. It seems years since I wrote to you and I suppose it really is, but we lose all count of time here and sleep all day and wake all night etc. so things get slightly mixed. We have broken all records for the British Army of continuous front-line occupation!!! It's too monotonous for mine. A relief is due for us shortly though I think it will be welcome too, I tell you."

Mentioned War Diary, May 1918

On 31st May 1918 Lieut Gair took out a patrol of 12 OR from J.33.d.45.30 at 1.15 a.m. and searched P.3.b and vicinity of road P.4.a. Listening post was formed at P.4.c.3.9 but nothing however was seen or heard of the enemy. Patrol returned at 3 a.m.

(Battle of Amiens, 8th Aug 1918)

To UK on leave, on 15th Aug 1918

"England, 14th Aug 1918. Dear Mum and Dad, after a spell of just under seven weeks, an Aussie mail is just beginning to float along. So far, I have not had mine but some got mail dated June 6th & 7th last night so mine may come this week. Yet, Mrs Wheeler may be holding it in London for me though I expect leave any time now. The latest I have heard is that I go on the 22nd. I was to have gone on the 1st, but it was put off for a few weeks. Oh, I forgot, I had one letter from Dad dated 2/6/18 last night. It was the one written with a fine bred foxy pup asking for more attention than he was receiving!! For want of that sole remaining optic of yours Dad. That's twice now. Do you remember the time you were hit with the mail at Charters Towers. Send me above of the old rooster to know for spite! I suppose you have all had the news of the kick we gave Fritz on the 8th and with the French turned the tables on him completely. Boches lost the initiative of attack and instead he is wondering where his next attack is to come, we have got him wondering where we will kick him next. Ours was a great show and a complete surprise. Our Bn moved forward 11 kilos altogether and you can imagine that we were dead beat when we arrived at our objective. We were the first Battalion in the Corps to reach our final point. Our Company being the first in the Battalion. It was our Company which captured the 12" gun train complete. Two others just got away in time. Of course, since then other troops have gone through us and advanced further still. To prove how the success was, he didn't counter-attack us till about the third day and of course he got it well in the neck. Our casualties were amazingly light for so big a show. The tanks were great. We had rather bad luck with our own particular tanks though, as a battery of field guns tried to put up a fight. They succeeded to a certain extent by firing at point blank range, put all our company tanks out of action. Soon afterwards we located them and turned the ever-ready Lewis Guns on to them. They left their guns and rushed down a dugout. When we arrived on the scene, they calmly came out with their hands up and wearing red cross armlets and asked for mercy. You can imagine what mercy they got. The whole crews were killed and if we had had time, I think the lads would have pulled them to pieces. It's an old dodge of Fritz to fire on you till the last minute and then ask for mercy. Of course they get it!! I don't think. One rather funny incident occurred at a farm house where we were fired on by machine guns. An old tank came and waddled on the scene and we got our Lewis Guns to work. This put the fear of the devil into the Fritz – he came out in swarms with hands up. As they ran out the 'diggers' sniped them and the gunners had a great time mowing them down. Few of that crowd were taken prisoners. They were another 'fine till the last and then ask for mercy' crowd!! On the first day of the big advance, we only had one man killed in the Battalion. The wounded was well under 100 and most of them were slight and walking cases. The whole show was a huge success. I have no news at all except stunts and I've said enough about it. Oh! I collected a few decent souvenirs I will send from England and the four of you can take your pick: That will be 1. An automatic pistol, 2. Iron Cross, 3. Order of Merit for Officers (German medals), 4. Five, 2 & 1 Franc notes, 5. German prayer book, 6. Photos of Gun we captured, 7. Invitation to a German Wedding, 8. Aerial photos and maps I used showing whole advance etc. I tried to get a watch and glasses too, but was too late. Well cheerio dears, Best love and kisses, from your loving Ivan"

 Buried at Tincourt New British Cemetery
"He was of 31st Battalion, B7, 5ft 9in, fair, 22 years. Came from Rockhampton, Queensland. At Nauroy, near the factory on 29th Sep 1918, at 9.30am, he was leading the Platoon in the advance when he fell wounded in the abdomen with a Machine Gun bullet. He remained conscious and was at once carried away by stretcher bearers."
 Cpl 3429 D O'Gorman, VII Platoon, 'B' Coy, 31st Bn
"31st Bn, B7, 5'9", fair, stout, 22 – came from Rockhampton- At Nauroy, near the Factory on 29/9/18 at 9.30am, he was leading his Platoon in the advance when he was hit with a Machine Gun bullet in hip and groin – a bad wound. He was conscious and cheerful and was at once assisted out by the stretcher bearers. I know nothing of his death and burial." Pte 3348 F C Clarke, 31st Bn
"We were trying to take the sugar mill at Jon court on 30th Sep 1918, about 11.00am and he was hit by a machine gun bullet which entered the top of his leg and lodged in his body. I was close by and saw him hit. He started to walk to the Aid Post about 1 kilo away and I did not see him again. He was a big man, tall, well built, fair, was in charge of 7th Platoon, 'B' Coy, 31st Bn." Pte 2897 J W Carr, VII Platoon, 'B' Coy, 31st Bn
"I saw him walking retiring from the left of Estaires near Bellicourt. He was walking, but he was wounded in the back and right side by shrapnel. He arrived at the RAP 32, was treated there and passed on. He was a man about 28, stout and fair, and was in 'B' Coy. I don't know what happened to him after that."
 Signaller 2006 R George, 'A' Coy, 31st Bn
"About the 30th Sep 1918, we were at Nauroy just past Bellicourt and were advancing in the morning. Soon after the start, Mr Gair was hit by a machine gun bullet in the stomach. He went away by himself to the Dressing Station, and died afterwards. Some of our boys buried him near Bellicourt. I saw him hit."
 Pte 4779 James Totten, VIII Platoon, 'B' Coy, 31st Bn
"I have no trace of this officer (32nd Bn), in my records. The mentioned officer was admitted to this CCS (53rd CCS) suffering from GSW Buttock and died 9.30pm, 30th Sep 1918. He was buried in the Military Cemetery at Tincourt." OC, 53rd CCS
Sir Thomas Robinson, Agent General for Queensland made the enquiries of the Red Cross
GAIR – In memory of a Comrade, Lieutenant Ivan Gair, 31st Battalion, AIF, who died of wounds at the breaking of the Hindenberg Line, at Bellicourt, on 30th September, 1918. Brisbane Courier Mail, 30th Sep 1938

GAMBLE

John Scott

GAMBLE.—Officially reported killed in action in France on 26th September, Lieutenant John Scott, dearly beloved husband of Minnie, "Swastika", Crawley street, Regent.
Life's highest mission he fulfilled,
And bravely answered duty's call,
To fight for liberty and right,
And battle for oppressions fall—
O joy: O delight; should we go without dying:
No sickness, no sadness, no dread, and no crying,
Caught up through the clouds with our Lord into glory,
When Jesus receives his own.
GAMBLE.—Officially reported killed in action in France on 26th September, Lieutenant John Scott Gamble, dearly loved son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. P. K. Down, and brother-in-law of Les, Athol, and Ralph.

"I saw Lt Gamble killed on the morning of 26th September, between 9am and 12pm. We were at Polygon Wood. We were going over and he was about 20 yards from me. When we had got about 1000 yards over, he was hit by a sniper. I think he was hit in the head. He shook hands with Lt Coutts and then died. Lt Coutts was killed about 5 minutes later. I do not know if Lt Gamble's body was buried. The ground was held." Pte 1563 H R Taylor
"I was told by Col Toll that Lt Gamble was killed by shell fire on 26th Sept 1917 in our attack at Polygon Wood. And that he was buried by his brother officers, Capt McLennan and Lieut Blomfield. Thompson and Walters were near where he fell." Lieut T J Judge, IV Platoon, 'A' Coy
"I saw Lt Gamble hit and fall down dead. I was a few yards away. It was at Polygon Wood, Ypres sector, about 2.30pm Sept 26/17. I knew him well. I know that he was buried, but not more about it."
 Pte 3033 Arthur Sawyers, XII Platoon, 'C' Coy,
"I saw him killed by a sniper. He was shot through the head. This happened during the hop over at Polygon Wood. He was buried where he fell. A party from the Coy formed the burial party. I could not say if there was any cross erected. I knew him in the Coy. He was an original Battn man. He came from Victoria."
 Pte 2470 Connell, 'C' Coy
"On the 26th Sept 1917 at about 11pm in Polygon Wood we were advancing, Lt Gamble being with us. Gamble was hit in the head by a sniper. As we had to go on, I did not see him again but after being hit and when I last saw him, he was bleeding freely and I should think quite unconscious and I understand he died before reaching the dressing station." "On the Somme near Villers Carbonnel killed on 29th August 1918; we were trying to take a forward position to cross the River, hit about 3pm, in the windpipe – just groaned and died very soon after, could not speak. Buried near where he killed. We dug 5 graves and buried them there – O'Donohue, Ben McFarlane, Felix Hamilton all 16 Pltn and Gard is 14 or 15 Pltn. I knew him very well. It was night time when we buried them, so I can't say I buried Gard, but he is buried there." T.R Mackie, 2049, 'D' Coy, 31st Bn

 MM, 29th Aug 1918, nr Villers Carbonnel (Stretcher Bearer)

“During the advance on the Somme River at Villers Carbonnel, when about 400-500 yards from the canal, about noon on 29th Aug 1918, S/B Pte Patrick Kelly was hit in the head by a shell and died within 10 minutes. S/B Gartner was with him when he was hit. S/B Pte Daniel Brodie Davis, MM was killed by the same shell and was buried in the same grave, which is marked with a proper cross having both names and battalion colours on it.” - Pte 4862 David Valentine Kaufmann, ‘A’ Coy, 31st Bn. & Pte 4660 George Henry Rowe, III Platoon, ‘A’ Coy, 31st Bn. Pte 289 Keith Renouf, ‘A’ Coy, was nearby.

Kelly, Patrick, # 240 'A' Coy, III Platoon

On 29th Aug about noon, on St Quentin Rd, during our advance Kelly was killed by a shell, hit in body and face. Buried near the spot. Pte Dan Davis Stretcher Bearer of A Coy, was killed by the same shell and buried alongside him. Grave is about 100yds from St Quentin Canal, 200yds right of main road running into St Quentin village, near village of Flancourt. Hit by a piece of shell in stomach and died almost at once, when rushing the river near right of Perrone - Pte Keith Renouf, # 289, was nearby. Kelly was engaged to a girl in London. We had just reached our objective, at Villers Carbonnel. S/B # 662, Pte Gartner was nearby. Another Australian (Pte Dan Davis) was buried in same grave, cross erected with names and battalion colours. Sht 62D SW O.20.c.7.2

Davis, Daniel Brodie, # 3016A 'A' Coy, III Platoon

MM “For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. Near VILLERS CARBONNEL on 29/8/18 during the advance to the SOMME, Pte Gartner displayed exceptional courage in attending the wounded in the open under heavy artillery and machine gun fire. Throughout the operations he passed over open country swept by heavy machine gun fire searching for wounded. He set a splendid example to his comrades of high courage and devotion to duty.”

Frank GAULT is the older man of III platoon, being a married man with four children, aged 32 years at enlistment. He was posted to the platoon along with other 4th Rfts men, William Berghagan, Frederick Harry Smith, James Underdown, on 18th Oct 1917. By the time of presentation of the plaque he would have been a seasoned member in readiness for the actions planned for 8th Aug 1918. Frank remained with the platoon through all the Battalion's operations until he was wounded in action on the 29th September during their final engagement. After evacuation and recovery in England, he was repatriated to Australia early in 1919. Unfortunately, we don't have a photo of him.

11 months Signal Officer

2 years Company Commander

4 months 2nd in Command

A very determined officer of a cheerful disposition. He has great energy and drive and can manage officers as well as getting the best out of men.

He has a sound military knowledge which he can impart to others. He can handle troops in the field and on parade.

He has imagination and thinks things out for himself.

Has shown great keenness throughout the course.

An excellent officer, in every way fit to command a battalion, in the field.

Lt Col R J Stafford, King's Royal Rifle Corps

I quite agree – well above the average run of an officer of his standing in the AIF.

A thoroughly capable man and a commander.

Brig General H W M Watson, Commandant Senior Officers' School. On 13th Dec 1918

"I was alongside Cpl Harry George ('A' Coy) and was hit by the same shell, while advancing at Warfusee on the 8th Aug, 1918. I saw him hit on the shoulder by a piece of shell, which went right down his body. I was next to him when he died, about an hour afterwards, while we were awaiting a stretcher. Mine was a walking case and I was able to look after George. He was dazed, but able to talk to me, asking where he was hit and similar questions. I took his paybook and note book etc, to the Dressing Station at Warfusee, and gave them to one of the 8th Bde padres. I know nothing of his burial." Pte 2488 S V Shekleton, III Platoon, 'A' Coy, 31st Bn

"I knew L/Cpl Harry George, A.4, an original man. Pte S V Shekleton, A.3 told me that George was killed in August 1918. I think he said near Harbonnieres. Shekleton has since been wounded and is in hospital." Pte 718A J Anderson, III Platoon, 'A' Coy, 31st Bn

"I was told by Donald Campbell, A.IV, Number I do not know, that he was with him when he died and that he took away his paybook which he handed to the Padre. George was a L/Cpl." Pte 4775 F G Leslie, 31st Bn

"I saw him hit by a 'whizz bang' on 8th August, in front of Warfusee near Bayonvillers. It was during the advance, and I think he was hit in the arm, but was not close enough to be sure of the nature of his wounds. We went on and I do not know what became of him. He was a Signaller in 'C' Coy, fair, about 5'7", thick set, am not sure of his initials or number (Pte 2006 Rupert George). It was about 9am when he was knocked. There was another George in the Battalion. A big tall man, but I did not know him well." Cpl 3849 R Mercer, 'D' Coy, 31st Bn

"On 8th August, whilst in action on western side of Warfusee, I passed a man in a shell hole, who had been wounded. Someone passed the remark 'There is young George'. I could not say which George it was, there were two in the 31st Battalion." Cpl 3849 R Mercer, 'D' Coy, 31st Bn

"Re Pte H George, who is reported to you as wounded and missing on 9th Aug 1918. In replying I regret to say that the said person was wounded near me on 8th Aug and not the 9th Aug. He was a yard or so in front of me at the time he was wounded. I caught up to him, and very much regret this is practically all I can tell you, because as soon as I saw him covered, I myself had to leave the battalion." Pte 4273 Dan Campbell, IV Platoon, 'A' Coy, 31st Bn

"George was hit in the stomach on 9th August while in a trench between La Motte and Bayonvillers. We advanced and left his body in the trench where he died. Who buried him, I cannot tell, but probably he is buried in the trench." Pte 222 John Hullah, 'A' Coy, 31st Bn

('B' Coy, 31st Bn)

Court of Inquiry into death of Pte D Gray, (24th Jan 1918)

Pte 3017A Frederick Richard Gilbert "I am a member of 'B' Coy, 31st Battalion. On the morning of 27th September 1917, at about six o'clock, I was in a trench that had been captured by 31st Battn, AIF, on the previous day. An order was issued for all rifles to be cleaned. I reached for my rifle on the parapet. In seizing hold of it, the rifle exploded. On looking along the trench, I saw that Pte D Gray was badly wounded. I was considerably upset by the occurrence, and could hardly realise that the accident was caused by me. I saw Pte D Gray in a dying state, but could not stay with him owing to the advance being continued. I was so unnerved with the occurrence that it was most difficult for me to carry on my duties, my rifle was loaded in preparation for a counter-attack. Cpl Whelan was the only other man I knew in the trench, and was standing alongside me at the time of the accident."

"On the morning of 27th September 1917 (second morning of the Polygon Wood advance) I was in a trench occupied by the 31st Bn. About 6 o'clock an order was given to clean all rifles. Pte Gilbert, who was along side of me in the trench, took his rifle off the parapet and in grasping it, the rifle was discharged. As soon as the explosion occurred, I looked along the trench and noticed that Pte D Gray was seriously wounded. I immediately proceeded to bandage Pte D Gray and give what assistance I could, he was however beyond help, as the bullet had pierced his brain and the man was dying. The bullet discharged from rifle by Pte Gilbert was the bullet that pierced the brain of Pte D Gray, as no other rifle was discharged at that time and as Pte D Gray was sitting in such a position that no enemy rifle fire would affect him. When Pte Gilbert saw the result of the discharge of his rifle, the shock so unnerved him, that in my opinion, he was incapable of carrying on his duties. I did not see Pte Gilbert later as almost immediately the advance was continued. Pte D Gray was not dead when I left the trench, but was in such a state that death must have occurred shortly afterwards. I did not know any other men that were in the trench at the time of the occurrence. I reported the occurrence to the officer in charge of the sector."

Signed Cpl N. J. Whelan

The Court of Inquiry having considered the evidence, finds as follows:

1. That the death of Pte D Gray was caused by a shot from a rifle on 27th Sept 1917
2. That the shot was fired accidentally by Pte 3017A FR Gilbert of 31st Bn.
3. That Pte Gilbert is in no way responsible for the accident and is exonerated from all blame.

I saw them all lying dead, killed by shell or rifle fire during our advance on 26th Sep to Polygon Wood. They would be buried where they fell as there was no chance of carrying their bodies back."*

Pte 4012 J Anderson, 31st Bn

"Deceased came away from Australia on same boat as myself (Ceeongchow 4/5/16) with the 7th Rfts. And was in 8 Platoon, 31st Bn. We were attacking at Polygon Wood at 8 o'clock in the morning, 26th Sep 1917. I saw him hit by machine gun fire in the abdomen. He died half an hour later without regaining consciousness. A party of Pioneers buried him where he fell and a cross suitably inscribed was erected by his pals of the Battalion. Informant was a particular friend of deceased and an eye witness."

I never heard he had been reported Missing on the 27th Sep. I last saw him with the Bn about 28th Dec and he was all right then."*

Pte 4024 A. Biltoft, A.IV, 31st Bn

"I have received yours of the 16th inst and noted its particulars, but I am not the soldier you are inquiring for. I think I can throw a little light on the matter though, but unfortunately it is not very cheering news that his people must eventually know. I was wounded on 27th Sep 1917 and passed through CCS. I was reported at my Battalion and Company as having 'Died of Wounds', but on my writing a letter to a chum in Company, it was afterwards altered to 'Wounded'. Now my surmise is this, that through some error or other, his particulars were sent to 'A' Company as referring to me, as my initials and his are very similar viz his are H.J. and mine are M.J. My number is 3241 and his 3357. Of course, after my particulars being altered no more was said about it in our Coy., as I am the only Gill that is or has been in 'A' Coy. (I procured this information from our Coy Orderly Room). The Gill you are looking for was in 'B' Coy. Now if there had been a mistake in my particulars being marked 'Wounded' and applied to his case and of course him not turning up at a hospital or his unit, he was eventually marked as 'Missing'. That is my idea of what happened, of course I cannot say if it is right. But I know for certain the facts regarding my own case, also that 3357 H.J. Gill was in 'B' Coy, not 'A' Coy, 31st Bn. He has some relatives in England I believe, as I had one of his letters by mistake. It was from a Mrs Gill, 'Vine Cottage', Probus, Cornwall. On account of him being marked as 'A' Coy, a mate of mine, who was at the base some time ago, when asked for particulars, mistook him for me and told them I was back with my unit, which is quite correct."

Pte 3241 M. J. Gill, 'A' Coy, 31st Bn

"He was in 'A' Coy, 4 Platoon. His initials should be M.J. (Michael Joseph) he came from SA, about 5'7" in height. Fair complexion, about 22 years. He went away from Battalion on 27th Sep with shrapnel wound (not serious). He was away about 3 weeks. He rejoined the Battalion in October. I saw him there and spoke to him. He was still there when I left on 17th Jan."

On numerous occasions the attack was slightly impeded, but never for very long, as he was always ready (and did) lead a small party to settle the obstacle. He brilliantly led an attack on a strong point and with great gallantry captured 10 Germans and one Machine Gun. Later on he was wounded but refused to leave, carrying on with his difficult job until exhaustion compelled him to be carried to the rear. By his wonderful courage and total disregard of danger, he rendered invaluable service to his Company."*
 Re Pte William Tinhaam (POW at Polygon Wood): "I feel sure this name is spelt wrong on the list. There was a man in my Platoon called Tinhaam. William Tinhaam, whose number was 967. He left Australia Nov 9/15 in my section & we became pals. We gave each other our home addresses & his was c/o Mrs M Read, 121 Moon St, Clifton Hill, Victoria. Tinhaam was known throughout the regiment on account of his beautiful voice. He sang like a girl. There was no man called Binham in the Regt & I am certain of Tinhaam's number being 967."

K1A on 26th Sep 1917 at Polygon Wood

(‘A’ Coy, RO 566)

“I saw him killed at Polygon Wood. He was shot through the head with a bullet and killed instantly. I knew him very well, he came from Wilston, Brisbane, Queensland. I do not know place of burial and I cannot refer to anyone for particulars. He was lying in a shell hole when I saw him last. We held the ground and I am sure he would be buried somewhere near the place of casualty.”

Pte 3933 SH Roth, I Platoon, ‘A’ Coy, 31st Bn

“I saw him killed by a shell, just as we reached our first objective at Polygon Wood. I could not say if he was buried. I knew him in the company. He came over with the 13th Rfts of the 25th Batt. He came from Brisbane.”

Pte 3203 Robert Victor Falkner, ‘A’ Coy, 31st Bn

“Thomas Joseph Gough was in AII, and his number was 5017. I know him intimately. Before the war he was an accountant for Allan & Stark in Queen St, Brisbane. He lived at Woolston. I was told by L/Cpl William Lesley, attached to ‘A’ Coy, that he had seen Gough on the 26th Sept at Polygon Wood, killed by shell fire. This occurred about 8am. Gough was buried near where he fell and there was a cross put on top of him.”

Pte 5012 William Power Francey, XIII Platoon, ‘D’ Coy, 31st Bn

“Re the enquiries of Pte 5017 T J Gough. I was not with him at the time he was killed, but I made inquiries from some of my mates who saw him killed. He was one of the first to be killed in the Polygon Wood offensive on the morning of the 26th Sep 1917. There was a Pioneer Bn at work burying the dead shortly afterwards, and as he was one of the first to fall would most likely be buried, but I could not be certain, and if he was buried it would be on the field. I have written to his sister, Mrs GH Smith, Brisbane, and given her as much information as possible. I will try and find out more particulars with regard to his burial and will inform you as soon as possible.”

L/Cpl W C Lesley,

“I saw his dead body as we were going forward on the morning of 27th Sept at Polygon Wood. He was lying face up, and quite dead. I walked right over him. He had evidently been killed the day before. I know nothing as to burial. He was a Lewis Gunner in I Platoon, ‘A’ Coy.”

No Love Like a Mother's

John Goulding Miner 16 FEB 2017

John Goulding was born at Lincolnshire in England and was just six years of age when he arrived in Australia. His family took up residence in South Brisbane and young John attended the Southport State School. He enlisted in August 1915 and sailed in November to serve in France with the 31st Battalion. He was listed as missing after the terrible charge at Fromelles (Pecurbat) on July 19th 1916 and in November his mother, Alice, was advised it was likely he had died as a prisoner of war, but thereafter she heard nothing. A letter written by Alice Goulding in 1919 provides us with a heart rending insight into the thoughts and feelings of grieving parents at this time. I have waited patiently with an aching heart for news of him, if only I could know that he did not suffer too I do hope that something further will be made known to me, although three years have passed it seems but as yesterday. I am still waiting. First missing, then prisoner of war, then killed in action. I know he was not the only one by thousands, but he was my son, just lent to me for 35 years and then missing..... I know a good man, I believe a good man but I do not know if a good soldier. He has paid the price as many others have done, but in all the world there is no love like a mother's love for her children..... The suspense is what makes it so hard. Hoping this mail will bring some tidings or the next one. I cannot write more and I know you don't want to read more. May I please ask will you try and find any record of him, my boy.' She wrote again in December 1928, four years after he was killed, concluding her letter 'So hard for a devoted mother. I am sorry and sad. The earnest prayer of my heart is may he rest in peace until we meet Again John Goulding is believed to have died on the day of his capture, July 19th 1916, and was buried by the Germans in pits at Phossant Wood. Alice Goulding died on July 19th 1928, six years to the day after the death of her son. In 2012 his remains were identified and reburied in the Phossant Wood Military Cemetery at Fromelles.

Accidentally Killed on 27th Sep 1917 at Polygon Wood ('C' Coy, RO 566)
 Court of Inquiry into death of Pte D Gray, (24th Jan 1918)

Pte 3017A Frederick Richard Gilbert "I am a member of 'B' Coy, 31st Battalion. On the morning of 27th September 1917, at about six o'clock, I was in a trench that had been captured by 31st Battn, AIF, on the previous day. An order was issued for all rifles to be cleaned. I reached for my rifle on the parapet. In seizing hold of it, the rifle exploded. On looking along the trench, I saw that Pte D Gray was badly wounded. I was considerably upset by the occurrence, and could hardly realise that the accident was caused by me. I saw Pte D Gray in a dying state, but could not stay with him owing to the advance being continued. I was so unnerved with the occurrence that it was most difficult for me to carry on my duties, my rifle was loaded in preparation for a counter-attack. Cpl Whelan was the only other man I knew in the trench, and was standing alongside me at the time of the accident."

"On the morning of 27th September 1917 (second morning of the Polygon Wood advance) I was in a trench occupied by the 31st Bn. About 6 o'clock an order was given to clean all rifles. Pte Gilbert, who was along side of me in the trench, took his rifle off the parapet and in grasping it, the rifle was discharged. As soon as the explosion occurred, I looked along the trench and noticed that Pte D Gray was seriously wounded. I immediately proceeded to bandage Pte D Gray and give what assistance I could, he was however beyond help, as the bullet had pierced his brain and the man was dying. The bullet discharged from rifle by Pte Gilbert was the bullet that pierced the brain of Pte D Gray, as no other rifle was discharged at that time and as Pte D Gray was sitting in such a position that no enemy rifle fire would affect him.

When Pte Gilbert saw the result of the discharge of his rifle, the shock so unnerved him, that in my opinion, he was incapable of carrying on his duties. I did not see Pte Gilbert later as almost immediately the advance was continued. Pte D Gray was not dead when I left the trench, but was in such a state that death must have occurred shortly afterwards. I did not know any other men that were in the trench at the time of the occurrence. I reported the occurrence to the officer in charge of the sector."

Signed Cpl N. J. Whelan

The Court of Inquiry having considered the evidence, finds as follows:

4. That the death of Pte D Gray was caused by a shot from a rifle on 27th Sept 1917
5. That the shot was fired accidentally by Pte 3017A FR Gilbert of 31st Bn.
6. That Pte Gilbert is in no way responsible for the accident and is exonerated from all blame.

"For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty during operations West of BELLENGLISE on the 18/9/1918. During the advance Pte Greenwood did excellent work with the Lewis Gun. He worked right out in front of his Coy ensuring the advance to the HINDENBERG LINE, and he finally succeeded in establishing himself right up near the enemy wire where he kept the enemy down whilst the Coy dug in. It was owing to his bravery and initiative that the Coy was able to reach this position and by his brilliant work he prevented counter attack from developing. His behaviour was an excellent example to his comrades."

["The Argus"]

Thursday 1 March 1917

The Countess of Darnley, who was formerly Miss Florence Morphy, of Melbourne, was the recipient of a handsome New Year's gift from a number of Australian officers, whom she and Lord Darnley entertained at Christmas dinner. The present consisted of a silver rose-bowl, engraved with the rising sun, the badge of the Australian Imperial Forces, and inside was an inscription expressing the hope that the perfume of flowers which might grace the bowl in future years would be as fragrant to Lady Darnley as the memory of the sojourn of the donors at Cobham Hall would be to them. Lord and Lady Darnley have given over the state apartments of their residence, Cobham Hall, Gravesend, Kent, to the authorities for a residence for 50 Australian officers, and it was a contingent of these, headed by Lieut-Colonel S. W. G. Annand, 2nd Pioneer Battalion, and Lieutenant Col F. W. Toll, 31st Battalion, who made the presentation.]

Was in charge of keeping ammunition supplies between our and captured German trenches at Fromelles, Re death of Pte 1144 William Bede Stoddart: "I am only too sorry to inform you that no error has been made. Stoddart was one of my section, and in the action of 19th & 20th July, a heavy one, was killed on the first day in attack on Fromelles, south of Armentieres. His remains are buried at Sailly, 5 miles behind firing line (I am unable to give a map reference, you can obtain same at AIF HQ, London), on 21st Jul 1916. I was on duties keeping our ammunition supply between our front line and captured German trenches. I had charge of Stoddart and others, a number of whom were killed or wounded by the shell that accounted for Stoddart. His death was instantaneous, fragments of shell penetrating the chest, more likely the heart. He fell in my arms and never spoke or showed any signs of life after being hit. Trusting this information will help you. I also intend writing to his next of kin at once. I am sorry I am unable to give a description clearly of his personal appearance, having had charge of so many men and faces continually changing, I may make mistakes which would only confuse you."

One bomb scored a direct hit, killing 16 men and wounding 11 men. Guddopp was one of the 16 men killed, and was buried in a temporary grave at Vaux sur Somme. Buried by Sgt A. O'Sullivan. Sht 62D J.26.D,94 Plot A, Row 1. Reburied at Villers Bretonneux Military Cemetery, Fouilloy

"I knew Private Guddopp, Signaller, in Coy HQ, who was one of a big number killed at a ration dump close to the Bray-Corbie Rd, about 24th June 1918. I did not see his body nor was I present when he was killed. About 100 went up to the Battalion lines, about 1500 yards away, to get the rations. While they were there, the dump was blown up, by Aerial Bombs from Fritz's planes. A large proportion of the 100 men were killed and wounded. Those killed were buried near the spot. I saw the graves with a cross on them. I would say that there were fully fifty casualties. It happened at night. I went up during the night, to help clean up."

Signaller 3906

W H Higgs, 'C' Coy, HQ, 32nd Bn

"He was of 32nd Bn, 'C' Coy, HQ.

At Sailly le Sec, near 'C' Company ration dump, on 24th June 1918. Fritz's planes bombed us and killed 24 or 25 with one bomb, Guddopp being one. He was killed instantly. All bodies were taken away for burial by a Transport Waggon, but I cannot say where they were buried."

Cpl 5208 W Tillet, 'C' Coy HQ, 32nd Bn

"He was in 'C' Company Headquarters

At Saily le Sec on 24th September 1918 (sic), he with many others, were near a ration dump, when a Fritz aeroplane dropped a bomb among them, and killed about 25 of them. All bodies were buried at Vaux. I saw Guddopp's body with the others ready for burial.

R.S.J. Kennedy, the Quartermaster (No 1302) was killed by the same bomb."

('B' Coy, RO 566)

"Our general advance took place at daylight on 26th September 1917. We had moved up from billets in a rear area, during the night before. We had just reached the line-up tape early in the morning, when we were ordered to advance. It was 10 minutes to 6, when we moved forward. Our objective was an imaginary line about 1000 yards ahead of us. That was the objective set for 'A' and 'B' Companies. We lost quite a number of men going across. We came to a number of dug-outs and "pill-boxes" and sent back a number of German prisoners.

Officers seen during the engagement.

I saw the following officers during the advance.

Captain McLennan, the OC of 'B' Coy

Lieut Brodie, 'A' Coy he was killed alongside me. It was near a "pill-box" just as we had about reached our objective.

Wounded and made Prisoner

The men of all battalions were mixed up. A machine gun bullet struck me in the right hand. I made an attempt to get back but was again wounded, this time in the knee. I took cover in a shell hole. This would be about 8 o'clock. I remained there till about 9.30. In the meantime, the enemy had counter-attacked and were driving our chaps back. There were eight or 10 of us taken prisoner by the Germans. At the first dressing station behind the lines, my wounds were dressed.

Among those who were taken with me, were the following, all of the 31st Battalion:

Pte 4119 W. Pollock (unwounded)

Pte 4800 A.J. Hother

Pte 3812 E.P. Griffiths

Pte 3195 S.V/ Nowlan

Pte 967 W. Tingham

Hother, I understand is reported "Missing". As we were going back as prisoners, one of our own HE's exploded near the group of us. I did not see Hother afterwards.

What happened immediately after capture.

At a village behind the lines my smashed fingers were amputated and my wounds dressed. Then we were taken to Courtrai, but went on through Ghent to Cologne in Germany.

I remained at Cologne for two months till 1st December. I was in hospital there. Their treatment was very poor. My wounds were dressed about once a week. Tingham and Nowlan, of the same battalion, were with me at Cologne

I was transferred from Cologne to Limburg a/Lahn and remained in the Lager there till 22nd March 1918, when I left for Aachen for exchange.

Across Holland to England

For the time we were at the frontier post of Aachen awaiting exchange, the German treatment was perceptibly improved. Crossing Holland to the port of Rotterdam the Dutch people gave us a very hearty reception all the way along the route. I crossed from Rotterdam on the "SINDORA" and reached Boston on Sunday 14th March 1918.

We came straight on to London and have been quartered at The King George Hospital at Waterloo.

I received my first Red Cross parcel on 30th Nov at Cologne and received them regularly afterwards."
