GOOMERI, January 26. 1937

Motor Accident. — A serious motor accident occurred at the Nangur Creek bridge approach adjoining the Goomeri township on Friday afternoon last, which resulted in Colin Sadler (7) receiving a broken leg close to the thigh and minor injuries to Alf Labudda, who suffered a bruised shoulder and abrasions to the face. Mr. Albert William Sadler, the driver of the truck, suffered from shock and one of his small children, who was also a passenger, suffered slight shock. Mr. Sadler was proceeding to Campbell's slaughter yards for a load of hides and tallow and at the time of the accident Colin Sadler was in the rear of the truck. Nearing the double curve approach to the Nangur Creek, the driver failed to take the first turn correctly and the truck almost went over the eighteen-inch embankment. Attempting to get the truck clear he brought it round too far to the left and it hit the elevated area on the left-hand side whence it proceeded to the right-hand side of the road again and turned over on the lower level, a drop of two feet. A passing motorist came on to the scene shortly afterwards and Dr. Underwood who was summoned immediately, treated the injured. Colin Sadler was conveyed to the Wondai District Hospital and his condition is reported to be fair.

Died 26th May 1960
 Buried Goomeri Cemetery, Gympie, Qld

Ted did not return to the bank, at either Ballarat or Collingwood, upon his return. His father John Organ Sampson had moved from Ballarat and acquired a co-proprietorship, in the "Box Hill Reporter" with Ted's uncle, Sydney Sampson (ex MLA), and Ted acquired an orchard at 154 Mitcham Road, Mitcham. John, Sydney, and their sister Kate (nee Sampson) Menzies were obviously close-knit siblings, and thus Ted was a first cousin to Frank and Robert Menzies.

Opposite Ted's property on Mitcham Road was the orchard of Alf and Annie Kleinert, and their sons, Alf Jnr and Ernest Ambrose Kleinert. They were one of several Kleinert families in the district, second generation, of German extraction.

Further along Mitcham Road, John and Louise Robinson (John Robinson, was formerly a shire councillor and director of the Mitcham Cool Stores), were neighbours. In 1926, Ted married their daughter – Iolene Mary Robinson.

Ted and Iolene had been married for fifteen months, when, on 3rd January 1928, Iolene was found dead.

Ernest Ambrose Kleinert was reported to have discovered the body as he was returning home after a party, and alerted the local Police Constable. The police initially entertained the cause of death as caused by a motor vehicle, though shortly after, concluded it as a murder. Ernest Kleinert was interviewed and charged with the offence. At his first trial, on the charge of murder, Ernest was represented by Mr Eugene Gorman, KC, who had served as a Captain in 22nd Battalion, AIF and was awarded the Military Cross, and subsequently authored the battalion history – "With the Twenty Second".

A report on the inquest can be read at:

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/article/140792692?searchTerm=ted%20sampson%2C%20mitcham>

The trial which commenced on 21st February 1928 and ran for three days, was reported Australia wide. The jury obviously had difficulty, and on the 25th February, they returned and told Sir William Irvine, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, that they had no hope of agreeing on a verdict. He ordered that Kleinert stand trial again at the next session of the Supreme Court, the following month.

A report on the first murder trial, when the jury could not reach a unanimous verdict, is at:

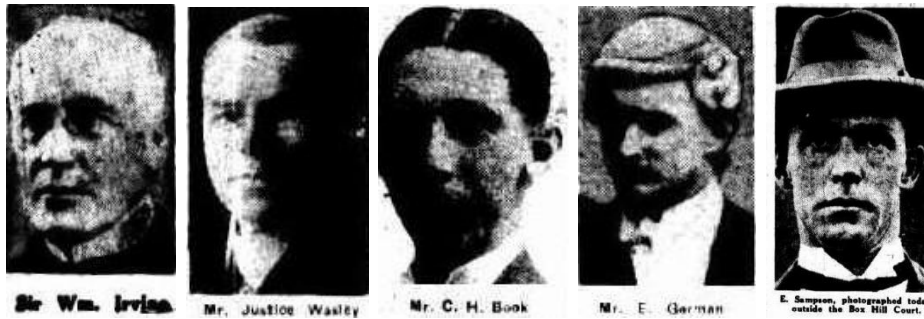

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/article/3913441?searchTerm=t%20sampson%2C%20mitcham>.

The second trial commenced on 28th March 1928, before Mr. Justice Wasley in the Criminal Court. Mr Eugene Gorman again appeared for Ernest Ambrose Kleinert, with Mr Book as Prosecutor, for the Crown. Similar evidence was presented as at the first trial, though more expert witnesses were called. Although a highlight was when Mr Gorman suggested Mr Frank Gladstone Menzies, Chief Crown Solicitor of Victoria, (and Edward Sampson's first cousin), may have made a judgement error of personally intervening in the case.

The jury retired on 30th March 1928, and after an hour's deliberation, returned a verdict for Ernest Kleinert, of Not Guilty of the murder of Mrs. Iolene Mary Sampson.

The second murder trial report can be seen at:

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/article/202314186/18865460>.

Four months later, on 31st July 1928, Ted was amongst a crowd of people outside Swan's Newsagency awaiting the arrival of the train bring the Saturday 'Herald' and 'Sporting Globe' when he literally bumped into Ernest Kleinert, when words were exchanged leading to an altercation involving Ted, Ernest, Alf Kleinert and at the urging of Annie Kleinert. Ted, being a pipe smoker, had his penknife handy, with which he seriously stabbed Ernest in the neck. Ted was charged with malicious wounding and was to appear in the Box Hill Court, on 2nd August 1928. On this occasion he was represented by his other first cousin, Mr Robert Gordon Menzies. Mr Menzies was able to convince the Magistrate that due to terrible provocation, and the grief of the loss of his wife, that the charge would be better dealt with as common assault. Ted was fined £5.

You can read more about Ted's conviction for common assault at:

Around 20 returned servicemen attended the court to support Ted.

It appears Ted continued working as an orchardist at Mitcham.

Alf and Ernest Kleinert also continued working their orchard, though Alf probably felt the stigma of the notoriety brought upon the family and the cost of some £2000 in legal expenses in the time of the Depression. On 1st September 1933, Alf suffered an accident where his truck rolled upon him, inflicting a painful injury. After being seen by a doctor, he took himself into his orchard and ended his life with his gun. Ernest, having been sent to look for his father discovered the body. A couple of years later, Annie Kleinert suffered a nervous breakdown and never returned home. Ernest moved to Footscray, (the opposite side of Melbourne to Mitcham), married Ivy Collins in 1950, and died there in 1981. Alf Jnr, became a pharmacist in Shepparton, Victoria, served as Private V395189 Alfred Ernest Kleinert with the 16th Battalion VDC before being released to a Reserve Occupation. Alf died in Shepparton in June 1991.

Meanwhile, Ted Sampson enlisted with 9th Garrison Battalion, at Portsea, Victoria on 16th Dec 1941, on full time duty. He was discharged from further service due to his Reserve occupation, as a primary producer, on 19th January 1942. Though he re-enlisted with the 3rd Bn, VDC as a L/Cpl, until the Corps disbandment in October 1945. In 1944, Ted married Sarah Isabel 'Bell' L'Anson. He died at Donvale in 1977.

VALE

EA Sampson. The branch is very sad at the passing of one of its most active and generous hearted members over the many years. Ted assisted in all the activities of the branch and was at various times: Committee man, Welfare and Hospital Visiting Officer and a Trustee for a very long time. For his outstanding and continuous work for the league, he was awarded Life Membership in 1965 and was also made a Life Governor of St Vincent's Hospital in 1968. Ted was as active after receiving the awards as he was before, until ill health some three years ago caused him to take a back seat. A member of the 103rd Howitzer Battery in the First World War, Ted also joined the VDC in the 2nd AIF.

(Battle of Polygon Wood, 26th/27th Sep 1917)

Promoted T/Cpl (vice Cpl G F Aitken, evacuated sick) on 1st Oct 1917 (‘C’ Coy, RO 591)

An old school mate of Pte Arthur Eyckens (KIA on 29th Sep 1917), L/Cpl 5914 Alfred John Saph, also of Beaufort, (‘C’ Coy) wrote to Mrs Ellen Nora Eyckens, on 5th Oct 1917; “... it is with feelings of regret that I have to write to you of the loss of your son, Arthur, who was killed in action on 29th September 1917.

We had been together for some weeks, and were the best of mates, and I can assure you I feel the loss very much. Most likely he had written home and told you that I had got him a good job with Major Tracy as batman. The Major thought a lot of him and told me on more than one occasion that I had sent him a good man.

On the morning of the 26th September our battalion went over the top and took and held their objectives. About 7am, Arthur was with the Major when this officer was wounded through the wrist. Arthur put him in a shell hole, bandaged his wound, and started to bring him out to the Dressing Station. On the way out a sniper picked them up, and the officer got another one through his other wrist. Arthur bandaged up this wound, got him back to the Dressing Station and headquarters, and saw him off to the ambulance.

The Major thanked ever so much, he told me, and promised to write to him as soon as he could, and sent him back from the line. He had to return to the firing line again on the 28th with others, as everyone was called up. On the 29th, a few minutes before his party (the last of the company) was relieved, a shell lodged right in the corner of the trench killing a sergeant, two corporals and seven others instantaneously and burying two others.

On 1st October poor old Will (Arthur's brother) came along to where we were, and I had to break the sad news to him. We went and picked out Arthur's pack, and Will got his belongings. Arthur had all his photos with him and had shown them to me only a few hours before he was killed.

He is buried along with the others, near where he fell, and the QM Sgt is having a cross made and erected, as we are in the same parts again..."

Reverted to L/Cpl, on return of Cpl Aitken, on 26th Oct 1917 ('C' Coy, RO 591)
 Promoted T/Cpl (vice Cpl McCandless, evacuated wounded, 26/9/17) on 26th Oct 1917, ('C' Coy, RO 591)
 Promoted Cpl (vice Cpl D McCandless) on 26th Dec 1917
 Re death of Cpl Hector Close, on 17th Apr 1918: "Re Pte Close, same has been handed to me from a NCO in another company. Cpl Close was an original 'C' Coy man and came from Ballarat, Victoria. He was severely wounded in the stomach on the morning of 17th April 1918 and succumbed to his wounds at Dressing Station. His personal belongings were forwarded to his NoK by battalion padre, and Cpl Duss forwarded his wallet to his sister. Map Ref: Sht 62D O.6.A.4.5"

Toowoomba Grammar School Archive Records state that he started at the school on 31st January 1912 and left on 1st June 1915. His achievements were recorded:

– Sports & Activities –

1915 – Cricket, 1st XI

1914 – Rugby, 1st XV

1915 – Rugby, 1st XV

– Leadership –

1915 – School Prefects, School Prefect

The School Magazine dated November 1917, stated, 'Norman H. Saunders was just as we went to press, reported killed in France. He was a prefect here only last year and a member of the XV. He will be remembered, too, as corner man in the minstrel concerts, and in this, as in all other things, he always showed the keenest public spirit. His father, Mr. H. H. Saunders, of Roma, is also an old boy, and so is his brother Claude who served in Gallipoli, and is now in France.'

(War Diary)

"At 2 a.m. Lieut Neville reported to Lieut Skinner, Left Platoon Commander of Left Front Line Company, that he intended taking out a patrol with the intention of raiding an enemy post in E.19.b opposite the 54th Division front. He was taking out a mixed patrol of Australians, English and Americans who were under instructions in patrolling at 3rd Corps School. Lieut Skinner pointed out to him where the enemy post was and warned him not to bear too far to the right, otherwise he would run against one of our listening posts near the railway embankment. The patrol had not been out on this ground before, neither had Lieut Neville reconnoitred previously. The patrol duly went out and were lost in a slight mist which was hanging about at that time. About half an hour later Lieut Skinner heard rifle fire and bombing going on opposite his right flank. It appears patrol had lost direction in the mist and had run across our Listening Post. The two men manning the Listening Post challenged the party as soon as they were seen and receiving no answer challenged again. After the second challenge the two men manning the Listening Post heard the order 'Prepare to Rush' and shortly after the command 'Rush'. Fire was immediately opened by the Listening Post and the patrol also opened and started throwing bombs. The garrison of the trench in the rear, hearing the firing and seeing the dim outline of figures, immediately opened fire with rifles and L.G. and threw bombs. The enemy also took part with MGs and grenades.

By this time Lieut Skinner arrived on the scene and had ordered 'cease fire'. Our casualties were No 3639 – Pte E. Taylor. Killed, and No 3414 – Pte J. Standish, wounded – both of these were manning the listening post. The patrol's casualties were 5 privates killed, 9 OR (including 2 Sergeants) wounded, and Lieut Neville was also very seriously wounded in the legs. It was certainly a very regrettable incident, but this Battalion is in no way to blame for the occurrence. It shows that the front line garrison was very much on the alert."

 (identity disc found post war c 1925 and buried post war)

"I saw him lying in the trenches near Fleurbaix on 19th July 1916. His leg was shattered by shell fire. I heard subsequently that he was taken back to the Dressing Station, but as he did not turn up I concluded he must have been destroyed by shell fire on the way back." Pte D McLellan, #259

"Sexton was wounded by a bomb in the German front line trenches and was put over the parapet into No Man's Land. His leg was badly wounded. Stretcher-bearers bound his leg to a rifle and left him there." Pte J F Ryan 'A' Coy.

"Re 301 Sexton J officially reported wounded and missing. I am sorry to state that I cannot furnish you with particulars of this man, who was wounded on 19th July. I knew him personally he is a middle-aged man (about 40), hair slightly grey and of splendid physique. I have made further inquiries since receiving your letter but cannot learn anything concerning J Sexton." Harry G. Wilson, MM, AMC, 31st Bn, AIF

"Pte H Wilson, MM, AMC Details, had a letter from his people enquiring as to his fate, and asked me as to replying to it. Wilson told me that he had seen Sexton out in No Man's Land, with a leg wound, on 19th July, at Fleurbaix, and that was the last he knew of him. Wilson wrote and gave this information. Sexton belonged to IV Platoon, 'A' Coy, 31st Bn." Sgt A. Moore, 1557, 'B' Coy

"He died of wounds in the trenches on 19th July. I saw his body next morning. He was buried at the same time and at the same place as Bain. Medium height, near 30." W. Thomson, 766

Blown up and killed at same time as L/Cpl 1523 Francis Lambert Baynes and Pte 59 Charles James Smith, (Sig)
6.30 pm, 19th July 1916, at Bn HQ

"He was wounded by some shell and died almost at once. Pte Shadforth was the servant of Colonel Toll and they had come together from South Africa."

"On 19th July, 1916, at Fleurbaix, at about 6.30 p.m. Pte Shadforth was blown up and killed instantaneously at the same time as L/Cpl Barnes and Pte C.G. Smith – Cpl Carew, # 43"

"I knew him personally. He was of medium height and Colour, age 39, widower. He was killed at Fromelles by a shell about 4.30 p.m. at the Battn H.Q in the support trenches. He was buried somewhere nearby. I was present when this happened and was knocked over by the same shell." –

Sgt A Compton, # 4.

"He was Col Toll's batman, and was killed at Fleurbaix on July 19th. A bomb landed at HQ while he was there and blew him up, killing him outright. I saw his body lying in the support trench, subsequently the body was buried in the cemetery at Eaton Hall, Fleurbaix. I have seen the grave. A cross marks it, which Col. Toll had erected. – Sgt A Moore, #1557, B Coy"

"Informant states that on July 19th at Fleurbaix, Pte Shadforth was killed by a piece of shell passing through the heart, while preparing for an attack, a high explosive shell, 15 others were killed and informant was wounded by the same shell. Informant was an eye-witness the time 5.30 p.m." –

Cpl Wilfred Lynn, # 79.

"The Argus"

Thursday 1 March 1917

The Countess of Darnley, who was formerly Miss Florence Morphy, of Melbourne, was the recipient of a handsome New Year's gift from a number of Australian officers, whom she and Lord Darnley entertained at Christmas dinner. The present consisted of a silver rose-bowl, engraved with the rising sun, the badge of the Australian Imperial Forces, and inside was an inscription expressing the hope that the perfume of flowers which might grace the bowl in future years would be as fragrant to Lady Darnley as the memory of the sojourn of the donors at Cobham Hall would be to them. Lord and Lady Darnley have given over the state apartments of their residence, Cobham Hall, Gravesend, Kent, to the authorities for a residence for 50 Australian officers, and it was a contingent of these, headed by Lieut-Colonel S. W. G. Annand, 2nd Pioneer Battalion, and Lieutenant Col F. W. Toll, 31st Battalion, who made the presentation.

"I saw him hit by a piece of shrapnel behind the front line while he was sapping at Millison's dugout, about one mile from Needle Dump. He was badly wounded and unconscious. Taken to a DS, but I don't know which one. I heard a few days later of his death. We were in XIV Platoon, 'D' Coy." Pte 4761 M R
Dahtler, XIV Platoon, 'D' Coy, 31st Bn

"This man and I were working together making a dug-out on the Somme Front, on 25th Jan 1917. A shell burst near us and a fragment struck and badly injured him, entering the kidneys and other vital organs. I saw him taken to the dressing station. Sgt Eric Carter, 'C' Coy, 31st Bn, informed me that Shoemark had died of his wounds the same evening (25th Jan 1917) at Miller's Son dug-out. I do not know where he is buried. He was 5'9", well built, brown complexion, about 26 or 27 years." Pte 265 Thomas Wild, 'C' Coy, 31st Bn

"He died at an advanced dressing station near Needle Dump. He was buried close by and two of his pals put up a cross with his name on it. I have seen the grave." L/Cpl, 2501 Alexander Dunne, 'B' Coy, 31st Bn

"On 'Sunken Road' we were making dug-outs, when Shoemark was hit by a shell. He was taken to a dressing station and died there afterwards. I did not know him very well, but there is a runner named L/Cpl 638? Joseph Little, 31st Bn, Intelligence Staff, who could give further information." Pte 3523 J C
Barron, XIV Platoon, 'D' Coy, 31st Bn

"No 2456 Pte Leslie Shoemark, 31st Bn, AIF, was wounded by shrapnel at Miller's Son dug-out in front of Le Transloy, in January 1917. I have made enquiries and learned that he died on a stretcher at 15th Field Ambulance, and was buried at the Soldier cemetery at Bernafay Terminus, near Montauban. Pte Shoemark was well known to me as he was in the same Platoon, XIV Platoon, 'D' Coy, 31st Bn. He was generally known as 'Les'. He was of dark complexion, medium to tall in height, and cheerful disposition. I have not seen his grave myself, and we are not in the same part of the country now, so I am unable to find out the exact position of his grave, but you may be able to get the particulars from 15th Field Ambulance." L/Cpl 63A Joseph Little,
XIV Platoon, 'D' Coy, 31st Bn

"Shoemark was about 5 yards from me on 25th Jan 1917, in the trench on the Somme, at Le Transloy, when a HE shell burst on the parapet, fatally wounding him in the thigh. I went to his assistance and he was bandaged up immediately and taken to the dressing station at Bernafay siding, where he died in about 2 hours. I have seen his grave which is marked with a regulation cross and is in the cemetery (containing hundreds of graves) at Bernafay siding. He was in my Coy and Platoon (XII Platoon, 'C' Coy) and I knew him well." Pte 3300 George

"Pte Simpson was helping to make some new dugouts, when he was shot by a German sniper. He is buried in the grounds of a big monastery at Fleurbaix, about one mile from the town." "We called him 'Simmy'"

Sgt 2935 Robert Henry Gorry, 1st Platoon, 'A' Coy, 31st Bn

"Simpson was shot dead, first go. A sniper got him through the head. He was on a fatigue party in our trenches at Fleurbaix. I knew him well, cannot say where buried."

Pte 2961 James Hobbs, LG Section, 31st Bn

"I have seen Simpson's grave at Fleurbaix. It was marked by a wooden cross with his No and name on it. I did not actually see him killed, but I saw his body very shortly afterwards as I was close to the spot. He was shot through the head and I think lived for about 5 minutes. I was not present when he was buried."

Pte 2981 John Lyle, 'C' Coy, 31st Bn

"I knew him personally – he came from NSW and was in 'C' Coy. Was thin build, pale complexion and had a slight hair-lip, about 20-21 years old. He was sniped at Fleurbaix, was hit in the brain, and died instantly. I saw him lying dead. He was buried in the Fleurbaix Cemetery and his grave had a cross with name, No etc. I did not see the grave."

SKUTHORPE Oswald

Oswald Tertius Skuthorpe was born on 17th Jun 1872 in Queensland to Richard Tertius Skuthorpe (b 1843, Kurrajong, Hawkesbury, NSW, d 12th May 1920, Gross Vale Hawkesbury, NSW) and Elizabeth Jane (nee Lamrock) Skuthorpe. He had six other siblings, including four brothers, two sisters. Richard was a well-known identity at Kurrajong and within the Hawkesbury area for his horsemanship, interests within cattle circles, had pastoral interests (NSW and Queensland) and was involved with horse breeding and racing for a number of years, as well as serving as a JP in the Northampton Magisterial District, NSW. Oswald and some of his brothers followed in his footsteps. In 1894 Oswald married Eleanor Marion Benson at Richmond, Hawkesbury, though they were not to have children. In 1904 Oswald would join with his uncle John Skuthorpe on one of the epic cattle drives as a boss drover.

Cattle prices were slumped around 1900 (£2.10.00 per head), due to several reasons including drought and depression. Mr William Francis Buchanan had ownership of the Wave Hill cattle station, and Sydney Kidman had the Victoria River Downs station in the Northern Territory. Following the Great drought of 1903-4, both Buchanan and Kidman took a risk of undertaking the first large scale eastward movement of cattle from their properties. Sydney Kidman hired Blake Miller and Flavell 'Jumbo' Smith to take two mobs of cattle (approx. 3,000 head each) from Victoria River Downs to Austral Downs on the Barkley tableland. Mr W.F. Buchanan hired Charlie Phillpot and John 'Jack-Dick' Skuthorpe to take mobs of bullocks (approx. 3,000 head each) to Buchanan's property of 'Killarney Station near Narrabri, NSW. And Steve Lewis to drive a mob from Wave Hill, NT, to Hergott Springs (Maree), SA.

Just a little on the logistics: Charlie Phillpot had a plant of 100 horses and a team of 25 men to handle 3000 cattle, and from the journey from Wave Hill, the men were paid £2.10.00 per week. Jack Skuthorpe had arranged for 7 tons of rations to be delivered to Katherine and then carried on wagons and packhorses on the drive. Steve Lewis was joined by his brother Harry, both part owners in the Newcastle Waters Station (Steve being the manager). Harry had taken cattle to southern markets in 1901. The men selected for the drive were good horsemen, knew how to handle cattle and knew the country well.

So, in 1904, after the previous year's drought, six mobs of cattle set out from Victoria River Downs and Wave Hill, in May and June, along the Murrumbidgee Track (known as the "ghost road of the drovers" due to its harshness of dense lancewood and bullwaddy) towards Newcastle Waters, on this the first large scale eastward movement of cattle. Jack Skuthorpe divided his mob, placing some 1500 head of cattle each under the care of Dave Warneke and Oswald Skuthorpe, for the journey across the Murrumbidgee. After receiving a telegram 'No rain, Murrumbidgee dry, very little Yellow Waterhole', Phillpot and Skuthorpe's mobs made it to Newcastle Waters and then on to Camooweal and Wyandra near Charleville. Charlie Phillpot was from Wyandra and his 3000 cattle arrived there. It appears Dave Warneke and Oswald Skuthorpe left the drive near here and Jack Skuthorpe and Drover Benson brought the herd down to Mr W.F. Buchanan's Killarney Station near Narrabri, NSW, via Cunnamulla and Brenda Station (on the Culgoa River, near Cubbie Station). "Drover J. Skuthorpe arrived here on Saturday last with 3000 cattle from Wave Hill Station, Victoria River, Northern Territory. waybilled to Narrabri, Mr. W. F. Buchanan, owner." and "Delivered Wave Hill cattle Thursday, 20th inst. (20th April 1905) Three hundred fats for Sydney taken out of them. Pen of fat bullocks exhibited at Show. Good delivery."

Mr. Jack Skuthorpe can lay claim to doing the longest trip with cattle in Australia, the trip being about 2,400 miles to Charleville. And the good condition of the animals seems to be indicated by the fact that a pen of fat bullocks was exhibited at a Sydney Show after-traversing this immense distance. The fat bullocks were described at the time as equal to anything to be found in Australia, and fetched £6.16.00 per head.

Oswald Skuthorpe enlisted at Rockhampton on 15th July 1915, and gave his occupation as 'Bushman'. It could be presupposed he was working on his father's holdings in the Alpha- Jericho region of Queensland. His wife's (NoK) address was given as 101 Caroline St, South Yarra, Melbourne, Victoria and it appears they were leading separate lives (she with her own independent means). As a 'bushman', Oswald was very proficient with animals and was an obvious choice as a Driver for the Transport section.

Dvr 20 Oswald Skuthorpe embarked with the 31st Battalion Transport aboard HMAT 'Bakara' on the 5th November 1915, disembarking at Suez on 13th December. During the re-organisation of the Anzac Corps, he transferred initially to the 5th Division Artillery, in March, then to the 5th Division Ammunition Column, in May 1916. He proceeded to France in June 1916, and his file is not out of the ordinary as he undertook the vital supply duties to the Divisional Artillery. Following the usual illness and an injured knee, (August 1917), and as a 46 year-old man he was transferred to England and subsequently returned to Australia in June 1918. Oswald disembarked and was discharged at Melbourne, when usually he would have been discharged in the Military District he enlisted (i.e., 1 MD, Queensland). One can only presume he again caught up with his wife, Eleanor, who was living at "Brentwood" 240 St Kilda Rd, Melbourne. The yearn for the outback way of life must have been strong, as his address until January 1934, is at his late father's property, "Kurrajong" Alpha, Queensland. In January 1934, he moves to 64 Regent St, Paddington, Sydney, NSW, and dies there in 1935, aged 62 years.

“For clever enterprising leadership when in charge of offensive patrols of No 2 Squadron, AFC. This officer combines the commoner qualities of individual enterprise and determination with rare abilities as a patrol leader; for example, on the 14th October 1918, when leading a patrol of 5 machines over SECLIN, he saw a formation of 12 Fokker biplanes above and to the East of his patrol. Relying on the co-operation of another higher formation of British machines, he deliberately manoeuvred his formation into a disadvantageous position in respect to the enemy patrol, in order that the higher British formation might be able to attack the enemy while the latter’s attention was concentrated upon destroying the lower British formation. This stratagem was entirely successful, the Fokkers being caught by the higher formation in the act of diving on that led by Lieut. SMITH, with the result that the destruction of 2 enemy machines was confirmed, and reports indicate that 2 others, in all probability, crashed. The Fokkers were then reinforced by 8 more enemy machines, and in the ensuing combat Lieut. SMITH accounted for one hostile machine in flames, while his patrol destroyed 2 others. In consequence, therefore, of this Officer’s capable leadership, the enemy’s superior formation was completely defeated and 7 machines destroyed and put out of action. There were no losses on our side. At 1600 on the same day just W of TOURNAI, Lieut SMITH was leading a patrol of 8 machines, and, seeing a formation of 12 Fokker biplanes, attacked and destroyed one of the enemy himself, drove another down out of control, while 2 more were accounted for by the remainder of his patrol. Lieut SMITH has been flying on active service with No 2 Squadron, Australian Flying Corps since 28.2.18, since then he has done consistently good work. Previous to that date he earned the Military Cross whilst serving with the 31st Battalion, Australian Infantry.”

Capt Francis Ryan Smith, DFC, MC

Francis Ryan Smith was born during 1896 in Brisbane and worked as a clerk before joining the Australian infantry. He served with distinction in the 31st Battalion and received an MC in 1916 for his actions whilst under fire. Smith transferred to the AFC and after training was posted to 2 Sqn AFC on the 28th of February 1918. It wasn't until the 9th of May 1918, when he scored his first victory when Smith along with Lieutenant Adam isolated a Pfalz Scout at 14 000 feet over Bapaume and then fired into it until it was destroyed, the Pfalz crashing near Marcoing.

At this period 2 Sqn AFC was experimenting as a Wing and flying staggered formations with 43 RAF and 80 RAF, both equipped with Camels. 2 Sqn would supply topcover at 16 000 feet while the Camels would fly at 14 000 and 12, 000 feet respectively. For the pilots of 2 Sqn flying for long periods in the thin and oxygen depleted air is strain at the best of times, and the large Wing formations were scaring off enemy aircraft so the SE5.a pilots had nothing to relieve the boredom. Major Murray Jones wrote, " the enemy's aircraft, unless surprised generally dived east, thus avoiding combat. "

By July 1918, 2 Sqn was flying in a Wing with 4 Sqn AFC and the engagements with the enemy were becoming more common, on the 4th of July, Smith was caught under the rest of his flight when the lead SE5a dived on a formation of Fokker triplanes. The Fokker dived past Smith and dived after it and then whirling around firing in long bursts at the small and nimble triplane. Smith finally got behind it and fired 50 rounds at close range into the Fokker, the Fokker crashing to pieces on the main Lille road near Capinghem.

On the 16th of September 1918, two flights consisting of eleven SE5.a's led by Smith, now a flight commander, and Manuel fell upon a formation of fifteen Fokker biplanes and triplanes. Smith led his flight to the east of the formation and attacked the enemy aircraft from above and behind, while Manuel led his formation in from the south. Smith singled out the lead Fokker and dived towards it but the German pilot zoomed up and eluded Smith by doing a half roll. Smith zoomed and then found a Fokker below him in a disadvantageous position. Smith fired 60 rounds into the Fokker and it fell OOC (out of control) and badly damaged. Smith zeroed in upon another Fokker in the ensuing melee and sent it down with a short ranged burst from his guns.

On the 9th of November 1918, 2 Sqn AFC along with 103 Sqn RAF in their DH.9's attacked Croisette Aerodrome. The SE5.a's also attacked Enghein Railway Junction , releasing 32 bombs of which 21 were direct hits on trains. One struck an ammunition truck and it blew up and spread flames far and wide amongst the trains and sheds. The pilots then began strafing the road transport and soldiers on the roads around the rail junction. Frank Smith was hit by ground fire and was forced to land. He was 2 Sqn's final casualty.

Smith once landing his SE5.a successfully evaded the German troops in the immediate area. He eventually obtained some civilian clothing and began the 40 mile trek back to the Squadrons aerodrome. Smith witnessed first hand some of the sights the now crumbling German Army had fallen too, including watching a squad of soldiers kick their NCO to death. When Smith walked in the Squadron mess the Armistice celebrations were in full swing.

Smith was the leading ace of 2 Sqn AFC and received the DFC for his service with 2 Sqn. The medal being gazetted on the 24th of October 1918 to add to his MC he was awarded while with the AIF. (extract from AFC website).

Awarded MM for actions: “During the operations of 29th September to 1st October, 1918, in the vicinity of BELLICOURT, this man displayed courage of a high standard. During the advance, one of the tanks was hit by a shell and commenced to burn. Without the slightest hesitation, and with an utter disregard for personal safety he entered the tank amidst exploding shells and ammunition and rescued two of the crew. This action was under heavy artillery and machine gun fire. His courage throughout was of the highest order and an inspiration to all.”

WLA (gas poisoning) on 25th May 1918

Admitted Kitchener Military Hospital, Brighton, suffering gas burns, on 2nd Jun 1918

Awarded MSM on 3rd Jun 1919: "This NCO has been a member of the 5th Australian Divisional Salvage Coy, since its formation in 1916.

During the period March to December 31st 1918, he has rendered valuable services in connection of material in forward areas, very often under adverse and trying conditions and of shell fire.

During the operations in front of CORBIE in April and May 1918 he was in charge of his section salvaging generally under intense and heavy bombardments of every kind, eventually being evacuated as a gas casualty on 26th May 1918.

He has at all times been an example to all ranks of the unit.

I consider his services worthy of special recognition."

He successfully held a difficult position against counter-attacks, and at a critical stage kept his Lewis Guns in action with ammunition from casualties. He showed great resource and initiative in leading parties to attack enemy machine guns, and set a splendid example of contempt of danger to his men.
"At POLYGON WOOD on 26th -28th September 1917, this NCO showed great gallantry in action leading and cheering his men on at all times.
He successfully held a difficult position against counter-attacks and when ordered to come back a little distance, rendered great assistance in bring back a Lewis Gun and ammunition.
At a critical stage, he collected ammunition from casualties, thus enabling his Lewis Gunners to keep up a continuous fire during the counter attack.
His platoon commander was killed but with admirable resource and initiative, Sgt Smith organized his platoon and personally led small parties to mop up enemy M.G's.
By showing an absolute contempt of even the heaviest shelling he set a wonderful example to his men."

Re death of L/Cpl Henry Douglas Tidswell on 26th Sep 1917: "He was killed about noon of 26th Sept, by a Sniper, as were consolidating Polygon Wood. I was close to him at the time, saw him shot through the neck and killed outright. The body was buried the next day by a burial party near Jetty Wood, the other side of Polygon Wood. The NCO with the party, which was in charge of Lt Blomfield, 'D' Coy, reported the burial to me. Tidswell belonged to XVI Platoon, 'D' Coy." Sgt Major S. Smith, 935, 'D' Coy

Re death of Lieut Ernest Clifford Rose, on 26th Sep 1917, Polygon Wood: "He was killed about noon on 26th Sep by a shell which made a direct hit and killed him outright, while we were consolidating at Polygon Wood. I was close to him at the time, saw him hit, and saw his dead body. The body was buried the next day by a party in charge of Lt Blomfield, 'D' Coy. The NCO with the party reported the burial to me. The place of burial is close to Jetty Wood, a small wood on the other side of Polygon Wood."

Sgt Major 935 S Smith, 'D' Coy, 31st Bn

Re Pte 2147 Samuel Jenkins, DOW, 10th Oct 1917 "He was wounded on 9th Oct near Zonnebeke while we were in Supports, by a shell which caught him in the back. He also got shell shock. I saw this happen and had him put on a stretcher to be taken to the Dressing Station. It was difficult to keep him on the stretcher on account of his shell-shocked condition. We heard later he died of wounds on No 17 CCS. He belonged to XV Platoon, 'D' Coy." Sgt Major 935 S Smith, 'D' Coy, 31st Bn

Injured accidentally (classified INJURED) on 27th Nov 1917

Pte Thomas Smith accidentally wounded.

"The above-mentioned soldier was accidentally wounded on 27/11/17 by L/Cpl Albert Edward Whitehead of LG Team. The gun had a stoppage and though properly cleared, fired on the cocking handle being retained, wounding Smith who had walked round from the rear to a position in front of the gun. No one is able to say how the live round got into the chamber."

Lt Col N Freeman

"I was a member of L/Cpl WHITEHEAD's Gun Team. We moved up the line at Messines on 27/11/17. L/Cpl Whitehead had the gun in action and was shooting over the parapet. I was a few paces away in the trench. The gun had a stoppage and Whitehead lifted the gun off the parapet to remedy it. At this point in the trench a sapper ran out to a listening post. Smith must have come down this sap just after the gun was taken off the parapet as he was not there when the stoppage happened. The gun fired but I do not know how it happened. Smith fell and groaned and I think I heard him say 'I'm hit' but there was a noise of rifle and machine gun fire. When, after the stretcher bearers came and took him away."

Pte 3767 J Brown

"I was No 3 of L/Cpl Whiteheads LG Team. We were in the line on 27th Nov 1917. Whitehead was shooting in No Mans Land and a stoppage occurred. Whitehead took the gun down to clear it. I had previously seen Smith standing behind us. L/Cpl Whitehead took the magazine off the gun, cleared the cartridges from the beltway and then from under the cartridge guide spring working the bolt backwards and forwards to do so.

When, he had both cartridges out he let the cocking handle go and the gun exploded. I am certain he took the cartridges out of the boltway and from under the cartridge guide spring but there was another cartridge already in the chamber of the gun. I do not know how it got there. Smith must have walked down the trench unnoticed by any of us and when the gun went off. Smith fell, I did not hear him say anything. He was shot in the leg."

Pte 9417 AC Peters

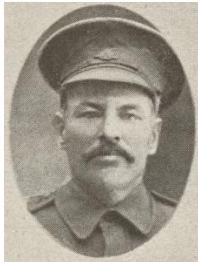

Admitted 8th Fld Amb and Died of Injuries (GSW in leg, severe) on 28th Nov 1917

DOW on 28th Nov 1917 at Messines,

Buried Bethlehem Farm West Cemetery Messines, F. 18.

Pte Alexander Thomson, MM (included as follows) and later Ted would send an aluminium postcard to his mother.

Wednesday September 26th

At 6 a.m. at break of day and very foggy and gloomy, went over following our artillery barrage we took Polygon Wood after some good fighting, but a good many casualties. Very little or no trench warfare in these parts.

Enemy adopted system of building concrete forts at intervals which are of a great thickness and strength, artillery has little effect on them. We call them pill-boxes, in some cases are difficult to take.

First Fritz I came across (a sniper) I bayoneted.

We took our objective often having good sport shooting fritz but it was terrible slaughter. Lost many of our pals, but made great slaughter on the enemy and took a great number of prisoners.

*Enemy made several attempts to counter attack, but was always repulsed and mopped up by our artillery which was terrific and perfect, nothing could live in it. We also shot down a Fritz Aeroplane which fell in our line.

Thursday September 27th

Still fighting and consolidating till late at night when we were relieved from the front line and went back to support just behind front line in some bits of trenches round a pill box where we got rations water and had a good feed. On going into front line for the stunt we were issued with biscuits and bully and a piece of chocolate which we lived on for two days while fighting.

We sat in these supports trenches all the time under heavy shell first, getting more casualties (killed and wounded) till Saturday night when we were relieved and came back to Dickebusch camp, much less in number and much knocked up.

Under heavy shell fire from Tuesday night till Saturday night. Took and held our objective and repulsed all enemy counter attacks. Our batt. captured at least a dozen machine guns to our credit.

The plane mentioned, was shot down over Australian lines at Polygon Wood at about 4:45PM on the 26th of September 1917. The Australian reports state that the aircraft was attacking the men on the ground and was shot down by men of the 59th Battalion. The 59th Battalion was to the left flank of the 31st Bn so the crashing aeroplane would have been observed by, and possibly crashed in proximity to men of the 31st. From internet research, it most likely was a LVG CV of KG4/Ks 24, this was the Schlactastaffel (basically battle fight - read low attack flight) of German bombing Geschwader 4. It would seem the motor was hit at 1200ft and it crashed near the Australian front line, however the crew of Vfw Marquel & Ltn Feigell managed to crawl back to German lines. [All DFW C.V (all mfrs) and LVG C.V were delivered with an aluminium hood over the engine.]

My initial reasoning was that Edward may have obtained a piece of aluminium from this aircraft prior to his wounding. This I now believe that to be incorrect as the ‘postcard’ was framed 20/9/18. Though a piece of aluminium would have been obtained under similar circumstances.

Was with Battalion throughout the advance commencing 8th Aug 1918, through Villers Carbonnel to Nauroy.

Ted engraved an aluminium postcard to his mother ‘Framed 20/9/18’. Ted was a member of ‘A’ Coy, and I have another aluminium plaque inscribed with III Platoon, ‘A’ Coy members and presented to Lieut R.

Kimpton for the advance of 8th Aug 1918. Also am aware of another aluminium postcard by Pte Felix Hamilton being sent to his friend ‘Joan’. Felix was on No 1 Lewis Gun team of XVI Platoon, ‘D’ Coy, and was KIA at the Villers Carbonnel operation to cross the Somme River on 29th Aug 1918. He must have completed this etched postcard before that date. So salvaging aluminium pieces from downed aircraft appeared to be a common practice, though with risk. Battalion Order 617 dated 17th Feb 1918

Cases have recently occurred in which British aeroplanes have been brought down in our lines and have been looted by our troops in the neighbourhood.

Many valuable instruments have in this way been lost and in addition such action must be detrimental to the good feeling between the RFC and other branches of the service.

The Army Commander wishes the special attention of all units of the ARO 1491 of 14.12.17 which gives the procedure to be adopted in the case of allied and enemy aeroplanes respectively.

Any attempt by unauthorised persons to remove any part of such aeroplanes should be regarded as a breach of discipline and the offenders severely punished.

Felix Hamilton's Postcard to Joan.

"I was at Dicky Bush near Poperinghe at 4th Divisional Headquarters about 9pm, on day in September 1917. I was working there with Snow and others. The Germans dropped bombs from aeroplanes. Snow was sleeping in the same tent as I was. He went out from the tent and was struck in the back and died in a few minutes. About 20 were injured and I helped pick up the wounded but I did not pick up Snow. About one hour after, the Pioneer Sgt in charge told us that Snow was dead. The injured were sent away in ambulances."

Promoted Hon Capt and Quartermaster on 12th May 1917Congratulated by Corps Commander on 26th Oct 1918, for gallant services rendered during recent operations.

Awarded Croix de Guerre for actions: "During the operation on 8th August at VILLERS BRETONNEUX until we pierced and captured the HINDENBERG LINE on 29th September 1918, Hon Captain SPARKES rendered his Battalion yeoman service and proved himself a splendid organiser, fearless and devoted to duty.

His organisation was so thorough and his determination to surmount obstacles so keen that on 8th August at VILLERS BRETONNEUX he delivered ammunition food and water to the men in the front line within one hour of the Battalion reaching the final objective for the day. This entailed following the attacking troops closely and he and his convoy came under considerable shell fire and it was due to his pluck and determination that the goods were delivered.

During the subsequent advance to the SOMME and later to the positions facing the HINDENBERG LINE, when transport and rationing afforded considerable difficulty, he worked night and day so the men of his Battalion never missed a single meal and were never short of ammunition.

On the afternoon of 29th September, the day of our attack on the HINDENBERG LINE and the villages and defences in rear of it, Captain SPARKES took forward a ration convoy to his Battalion and although the tracks were in an awful state and the shell fire was extremely heavy, he delivered a hot meal to his men at the rendezvous arranged. This called for considerable pluck and endurance on his part and he set a magnificent example to his men."

Just before I left the trenches with the first box, I spoke to Lt Spreadborough, who told me that Capt Sharpe of 'B' Coy was wounded and he was now in charge of the Company. I made the remark that I wished him luck and went off to the dump for ammunition. I took the box and started across. He had preceded me and on the way over I saw him fall. He dropped, apparently killed outright by M/G fire from the extreme right. I passed close to where he lay and he did not move. He was only about 30 yards from our front line when he went down. He was very well liked and came from Warwick, Queensland." Pte Frederick William Schilt, 492, 'B' Coy, 31 st AIF "Informant received a letter from Lieut M E Dening, 31st AIF in which he states 'I see Spreadborough is reported wounded and then missing. Kohler (Private in B Coy, 31st) says he saw him die.' " Capt Sharp, 31 st AIF "Informant states that on July 19th 1916 at Fleurbaix near Armentieres, Lt Spreadborough was killed. They were in a bayonet charge on German trenches and he was killed by shell shot instantaneously. Leckie says he was just behind him and saw him fall. Goddard says he saw him after he was killed, but being in a charge could not stop and does not know if buried. It was on No Lan's Land. Both informants were wounded." Pte Sydney Leckie, 465, Pte J Goddard, 208 "Informant states that on July 19th near Fleurbaix he saw Lieut Spreadborough fall in No Man's Land leading his men." Pte A Edwards, 666, 'C' Coy, 31 st AIF "I knew Mr Spreadborough, he was in 'B' Coy, and I saw him lying on his face with his hands dug in to the ground, 2 or 3 yards beyond the 1st line of German trenches. He seemed quite dead and I saw one of the men turn him over. Toodie Moon was with me at the time. This was about 6.20 pm on 19th July 1916. I feel positive he was dead." Pte A MacFarlane, 2060, 'B' Coy. "I knew this officer, he was a 1st Lt of B.VIII and led the Coy over as the Capt had been wounded. I saw Mr Spreadborough lying in No Man's Land this side of the German trenches with his head doubled up underneath him but I could see sufficient of his face to recognize him. He went over in the 1st wave – I followed in the 2nd, and I passed within 15 or 12 yards of him and am quite sure it was he and feel certain he was dead from the way he was lying. He was the only officer of that name in the Battalion." Pte H J Hudson, 453, B.VII "Your letter of 25th August with regard to Lt Spreadborough, 31st Bn, reached me only today, as it was sent to France. Pte S Kohler, of 'B' Coy, 31st Bn, is at present on furlough from this Depot (No 1 CD) but a letter to here would probably find him. He informed me on 21st July that he had seen Lt Spreadborough in No Man's Land but that he had died before he could do anything for him. It is however, possible, that he was mistaken. Lt Col F W Toll, VD, Commanding 31st Bn stated that the identity disc of Lt Spreadborough had been discovered and that it was hoped that the body would also be recovered shortly. A verification of this you could obtain from Lt Col Toll himself." M Tyler Dening, 2/Lt, 31 st Bn

"I shall be pleased to let you know as far as possible the details concerning the death of Lieut Springfield. There was a gun team that had to go from Support trenches to the Front line, and the team I was with had to go and report halfway to Lieut Springfield, and I might add that it was very muddy at the time, and I had to go last to see that all kept up. We had nearly got to Lieut's dugout, when I got bogged, so the Sgt went and reported to Lieut Springfield, and he came up and found me in the mud. No sooner had he left the dugout, when a shell burst about a yard away from him, so he came over and said "Is that you Mortenson" – I said "Yes Sir" and he said "They nearly got me that time, and we will soon have you out of this", so with that, another Officer (Lt Corcoran), late Lieut Springfield and three Privates got hold of me, and just as they were going to pull, a German shell came through the other Officer's legs and burst right in the centre of the six of us. The next thing I could find, all of them were about five yards from me in all directions, and Lieut Springfield was saying "put it out". He was on fire, and he then rolled over and put it out. I am still in the mud so cannot do anything, so I said "Is that you Mr Springfield". He said "Yes" cry out for 'Jack', that's our Sgt. He came over and he told the Sgt to go for 'Mick', that was our other officer, he came and went for the Doctor. The Doctor was in attendance very quickly, and said he was badly wounded, and I have never seen anybody so happy as Lieut Springfield, who was so near death, he was carried away straight away, and died on the way out, and was buried, and his grave is still kept in good order. The last words I heard him speak were of his mother, he said he was in no pain. He was loved and respected by his men, and was known to one and all to be brave and fearless, as a lion, and none were more sorry to hear of the death of Lieut Springfield than the LG Section. This is all I can tell you."

Cpl 3062 Eddie Mortenson, Lewis Gun Section, 'C' Coy, 31st Bn

"This Officer was detailed by me to place a machine gun in a certain position on the night 22nd/23rd Oct 1916. While standing in the open a shell landed in the middle of the party, killing one and wounding 2 officers and 3 others. The shell evidently hit Lieut Springfield, as his legs were gone. Notwithstanding this, he displayed great cheerfulness and we did all to alleviate his sufferings. He died at the Dressing Station and was buried in the cemetery nearby. A plain cross was erected by the Section, marks the grave of the bravest man I have met. I have written to his mother informing her of his death etc. I regret that I cannot any names of places. Trusting this will be of use."

Lieut Jack Trounson, MC, 'D' Coy, 31st bn

"Springfield was helping a man out of the mud in a trench between Flers and Bapaume, when both his legs were severed by machine gun fire. His wounds were dressed by 3rd Field Ambulance, but he died immediately after, as he was being carried down the communication trench. Informant was beside him when hit."

Sgt 3057 Ernest Edward Willis, 'D' Coy, 31st Bn

"I heard that 2nd Lieut Springfield had both legs blown off and died on the way to the Dressing Station, I couldn't say the exact date, but that in the book would be about the time. We were holding the line just above Flers, and he and I were in the Battalion Machine Gunners. Lieut Trounson, his superior Officer, could give further information, 31st Battalion, AIF. After Flersbaix in July, Springfield was a Sgt and then he got his commission and was put in 'D' Coy and then he went back to the machine gunners."

Cpl 880 Eric Jackson, XV Platoon, 'D' Coy, 31st Bn

"He had both legs blown off at Flers on 25th Oct 1916. I saw him after he was wounded. He was taken to the dressing station and died on the way from shock. He is buried in a cemetery by the 8th Fld Amb near Flers. I have seen his grave with a cross on it."

Pte 872 A E Hickson, 'D' Coy, 31st Bn (Stretcher Bearer)

"At Flers near Bethune, he had both legs blown off by a HE shell, and died as he was being carried down. He would be buried but I cannot say where. He was our Lewis Gun Officer. We did not go back but stayed on without an Officer, so I could not see his grave. He was a splendid man, a good Officer, and very brave."

Pte 79A Waldemar Lauman. 'B' Coy, LGS, 31st Bn

"I saw Lieut Springfield in a trench on 25th Oct 1916 at Gueudecourt. His legs were both blown off, one above the knee, one below. He was taken away to hospital but I do not know what became of him afterwards."

RSM 246 Frank Law, 31st Bn

"He had his legs blown off at Flers on 25th Oct 1916, by shell, as he was helping one of the men out of the mud. He was taken away and died of wounds. I have seen his grave with a cross on it behind the 1st Aust DS. The writing on the cross was fading and I renewed it."

Pte 223 S Hoggan, 'A' Coy, 31st Bn.

"He had his legs blown off by a bomb while in the Support trenches at Flers on 25th Oct 1916. I saw him after he was hit. He was taken away and died on the way to the Dressing Station. I know nothing as to the burial of the body."

22nd Jul 1918 (War Diary)

"At 2 a.m. Lieut Neville reported to Lieut Skinner, Left Platoon Commander of Left Front Line Company, that he intended taking out a patrol with the intention of raiding an enemy post in E.19.b opposite the 54th Division front. He was taking out a mixed patrol of Australians, English and Americans who were under instructions in patrolling at 3rd Corps School. Lieut Skinner pointed out to him where the enemy post was and warned him not to bear too far to the right, otherwise he would run against one of our listening posts near the railway embankment. The patrol had not been out on this ground before, neither had Lieut Neville reconnoitred previously. The patrol duly went out and were lost in a slight mist which was hanging about at that time. About half an hour later Lieut Skinner heard rifle fire and bombing going on opposite his right flank. It appears patrol had lost direction in the mist and had run across our Listening Post. The two men manning the Listening Post challenged the party as soon as they were seen and receiving no answer challenged again. After the second challenge the two men manning the Listening Post heard the order 'Prepare to Rush' and shortly after the command 'Rush'. Fire was immediately opened by the Listening Post and the patrol also opened and started throwing bombs. The garrison of the trench in the rear, hearing the firing and seeing the dim outline of figures, immediately opened fire with rifles and L.G. and threw bombs. The enemy also took part with MGs and grenades.

By this time Lieut Skinner arrived on the scene and had ordered 'cease fire'. Our casualties were No 3639 – Pte E. Taylor. Killed, and No 3414 – Pte J. Standish, wounded – both of these were manning the listening post. The patrol's casualties were 5 privates killed, 9 OR (including 2 Sergeants) wounded, and Lieut Neville was also very seriously wounded in the legs. It was certainly a very regrettable incident, but this Battalion is in no way to blame for the occurrence. It shows that the front line garrison was very much on the alert."

Rejoined unit from detachment on 12th Aug 1917

Awarded MM for actions: "At Polygon Wood on 26-28th September 1917, throughout the operation, this NCO showed great leadership and determination of purpose. He went into action as a Platoon Commander, and gallantly led his men on to the tape, and led them forward when the barrage fell. When advancing from the 1st to 2nd objective, he organised men of various units, and led them forward to their position. It was mainly due to his determination that these men reached their objective. During the period while the Battalion was in support, he was Acting Company Sergeant Major, and helped in brightening up the men by his manner and encouragement. When the Battalion fell back a little way to take up a stronger position, he rescued one of his men who was stunned by the bursting of a shell."

Rejoined 31st Bn, on 13th Apr 1918

Awarded MC for actions on 8th Aug 1918: "During the attack of the 31st Bn from the Warfusee-Abancourt on 8 Aug 18, this Officer displayed great coolness under fire and marked powers of leadership. During the first half of the advance he moved about the various sections of his company encouraging the men and dealing with the many tactical problems as they arose. Much of his work was done under direct field and machine-gun fire at practically point-blank range."

After passing "Bayonvillers" he assumed command of a platoon of the Company (the Platoon Commander and Platoon Sgt having become casualties) and displayed great judgement in the handling of his men in forming a defensive flank while the people on his right flank were temporarily checked. He set a splendid example of bravery and leadership to his comrades."

"For conspicuous gallantry and good leadership in an attack. He showed great coolness and initiative under heavy fire, and encouraged the men of his company by his excellent example. In the latter stages of the attack, he took command of a platoon, and skillfully formed a defensive flank when the advance was temporarily checked on his right."

*Lieutenant George Alfred Still MC, 31st Battalion, AIF
 by Robert Simpson*

George Alfred Still was born in Reigate, Surrey, England on 4th January 1883 at Montpelier Villa, London Road, Red Hill. His father was listed as a schoolmaster. He was one of eight children to George Ewers Still and Lucy Arnold. George and Lucy were married on 28th December 1880 at West Brompton. In the 1881 census George was living at Hove in Sussex with his parents and Lucy was with her parents in London. He was a graduate of St. Mark's College. George was listed as a School Master and Lucy was a Fancy Goods Assistant, working in the fancy goods trade with her father and siblings. Their first child Sarah was born in late 1881. George Alfred was the second child. He had 3 brothers and 4 sisters. In July 1884, the four of them departed Liverpool for Brisbane on the Nevasa, arriving there on the 8th of September. George was one of a batch of teachers brought out from England by the Queensland Government. He took up a position as headmaster of Newtown School in Maryborough (now Maryborough West State School). After arriving in Queensland, the rest of the children were born from 1885 to 1901. A younger brother, Kenneth Victor, who was born in 1893, died in Maryborough and was buried in the cemetery there in 1895. In 1895, at the end of year breakup, the headmaster George Still gave a report which included "that Haidee Sunners and George Still obtained Grammar School Scholarships at the last examination, the latter not being twelve years old at the time." In 1898 a list of passes of the Maryborough candidates for the Junior Public Examinations for the University of Sydney were published and included George, who matriculated with English A, French C, Latin C, Greek B, arithmetic B and algebra B. The youngest brother and family member, Victor, was born in Maryborough in 1897.

The 1903 Electoral Roll shows they were living at Ariadne Street in Maryborough and George Ewers was a Schoolmaster. In December 1905 the Maryborough Chronicle reported the breakup at Maryborough West State School and that that "was the twentieth and last at which Mr. Still would preside." An address was read to him from the staff and children and he was presented with a parting gift. The family relocated to Boonah where he was a school teacher and they were still there in 1908 and by the 1913 Electoral Roll. He was head teacher of the Boonah State School and then Brassall State School. By 1905 George Alfred Still had started working, and on the 1st October, he was appointed as a Draftsman in the Survey office of the Department of Public Lands. On 26th March 1908 he married Maggie Gilles Smith Gibson in Queensland. Maggie had been born in Queensland on 20th April 1883, a daughter to Andrew Gibson and Margaret Smith. By the 1905 Electoral Roll she was living with a sister in Kelvin Grove Road Brisbane and was doing domestic duties. In the 1908 Electoral Roll they were at Simpson Road, West Paddington, Brisbane and he was listed as a surveyor. On 23rd February 1912 he was listed in the Queensland Gazette as a Professional Class IV, in the Survey Office, Department of Public Lands. The 1913 Roll has them living at Fernberg Road, West Paddington with his occupation as surveyor.

On 27th May 1915 George attested with the 31st Battalion in Brisbane. The 31st Battalion was raised at Enoggera in Brisbane as part of the 8th Brigade in August 1915. He then applied for a Commission on 20th August, as he qualified at an examination for first appointment as 2nd Lieutenant. He was appointed to the AIF on the 30th. His educational qualifications were listed as Grammar School, Public Service Examination and Sydney University Junior, Matriculation and Senior Examinations. He requested that 10 shillings per day was to go to his wife on 29th September, which Maggie signed for.

On 5th November 1915, the 31st Battalion (1st Reinforcements) embarked on HMAT Wandilla, A62, in Melbourne. On the Nominal Roll, George was listed as a Lieutenant of 32 years old, a surveyor of address "Nowra", Upper Fernberg Road, Ithaca, Brisbane. Oddly his wife's address is given as Simpson's Rd, Upper Paddington in Brisbane. His religion was listed as Presbyterian and he was a British subject. The description of his present civil employment was given as computing draftsman and surveyor at the Survey Office Lands Department. His previous military experience was noted as 2 years' Field Artillery in Brisbane and 6 years Grammar School Cadets where he held the rank of Lieutenant. He was 5 foot 8.75 inches tall, weighed 156 pounds, had a chest measurement of 36.5 to 38.5 inches, and was of fair complexion with blue eyes and fair hair. His vision was 6/6 and 6/12 and had 2 vaccination marks on the right arm and a mole on the right shoulder. His term of service was for the duration of the war and 4 months.

They disembarked at Suez on 7th December 1915. On 2nd March 1916, he was posted to B Company at Tel-el-Kebir and was promoted to Lieutenant on the 21st.

The Battalion embarked at Alexandria to join the BEF on the Hororata on 16th June 1916 and disembarked at Marseilles on the 23rd. George was placed as Intelligence Officer under Lieutenant-Colonel Fred Toll, the Commanding Officer of the Battalion and worked closely with him. Prior to the attack, George and other observers gathered information and were praised by Toll who said the "men of this party also deserve praise for their untiring efforts and constant vigilance throughout the period 6th to 19th July." The 31st Battalion fought its first major battle at Fromelles on 19th July 1916. The assault had been postponed from the 17th, but even then the Battalion had suffered casualties due to enemy shelling. After a 7 hour artillery bombardment, which was ineffective, the attack was mown down by the German machine-gunners with severe losses. After the first two waves were sent off and mauled, Toll, realising the futility of the attack, and George (who had been buried by an artillery shell before the attack) led the third and fourth waves. Some German trenches were taken, but were lost due to no support and fierce counter-attacks. With Lieutenant-Colonel Toll, George had much difficulty in holding the troops, who had seen another Battalion withdraw and began to go back across No-Man's Land. In his notes on Fromelles, C. E. W. Bean writes "Toll, at 5.45, finding himself alone with Lt. Still and Cpl. Carew, both seriously wounded, strode back across No-Man's Land, practically the last of his brigade." Both flanks had been broken and they returned to the original front lines, with very heavy casualties. 544 men of the 31st Battalion were casualties. The 5th Division had over 5000 casualties.

Medals of Lt George Still (Military Cross, 1914-15 Star, British War and Victory Medals).

George was placed on the seconded list as evacuated sick on the 24th July. On 30th July 1916 George was sent from the 30th General Hospital at Calais to England with debility and eye strain (severe) on the HS Brighton. When Lieutenant-Colonel Toll wrote up the War Diary, he nominated twenty Officers and men for distinction in order of merit, with Lieutenant Still being the first name on the list and his name underlined for special consideration. Toll wrote "Lieut. G. A. STILL For gallantry in organising straggling troops and advancing over open country in rear of enemy's position, also for keeping up communications with Brigade Headquarters. by means of pigeons, and later runners, and in German main breastworks during the night, assisted in consolidating positions won, and generally devotion to duty." Army Form W 3121 has George listed in an immediate award list on 3rd August with the entry reading "At PETILLION on 19th/20th July 1916, displayed gallantry in organising straggling troops and advancing over open country in rear of enemies positions, also in keeping up communication with Brigade Headquarters by means of pigeons and later runners. When in the German main breastworks during the night assisted in consolidating the position won and displayed most praiseworthy devotion to duty." It was stamped awarded M.C. on 28th August. On 31st August 1916 he was awarded the Military Cross in France. It was gazetted in the London Gazette on 26th September 1916 page 9436. The entry reads: – "For conspicuous gallantry in action. He rallied and organised straggling troops, and led them on over open country. During the night, in the enemy's main breastwork, he ably assisted in consolidating the position won."

He was the only Queensland officer to be awarded the Military Cross for that battle, the only other one that was awarded to the 31st Battalion was to 2nd Lieutenant L J Trounson from Maryborough Victoria. On 20th September 1916 he was discharged from Brook War Hospital at Woolwich. He was placed on the supernumerary list on 24th October. George was marched in at Weymouth on 26th January 1917, marched out for embarkation to Australia on 10th February and was struck off strength on 13th February. He returned to Australia on HT Ulysses at Plymouth on 13th February. His record originally said gunshot wound to chest and arm, which were crossed out, and then recorded as shell shock and amblyopia of the left eye. In his reference, Bean mentions that George lost sight in one eye, but that is not confirmed in his records.

George was marched in to the Number 2 Command Depot. He was discharged in Queensland on 22nd June 1917. In his statement of service form, Maggie's original address was given as "Matea" Karella Rd Cremorne Sydney NSW, which was crossed out with the Simpson's Road address added. He was added to the Reserve of Officers list on 1st July 1920 as a Lieutenant.

From the 1925 to 1943 Electoral Rolls they were living in Flaxton, a tiny village near Nambour and he was an orchardist; very much a change in his occupation. By 1925 his father had retired and was living in Ipswich. He was appointed a returning officer for Fassifern and Bremer electorates. He was admitted to the Ipswich General Hospital in June 1934. George Ewers Still passed away on 20th October 1934 in Queensland. An obituary stated he was head teacher at Maryborough West State School for 20 years, 11 years at Boonah and 8 at Brassall and retired in 1925. He was also a member of the Maryborough and Ipswich District Teachers' Associations. On 6th November 1947 Lucy (his mother) passed away at Rosalie and was privately cremated. In the 1949 roll they had retired to Tugun on the Gold Coast. They shifted again and by the 1954 Electoral Roll they were living on the corner of North and Bayview Roads at number 121 North Street at Brighton, and were still there in the 1958 Roll. He was still retired. The 1963 roll finds both of them in a retirement village called Iona at Brookfield Road Kenmore, in Brisbane. Maggie passed away on 2nd December 1964 and George passed away in 1968. They had no children.

One of George's younger brothers, Victor, also served in WW1. Victor was an engine fitter from Boonah. He enlisted as Private 2674 in the 9th Battalion on 26th May 1915, was transferred to the 49th Battalion on 2nd April 1917 in France and was wounded in 1917 with a severe gunshot wound of the back. He was admitted to hospital and died of wounds on 29th October 1917 at 5.25 am. Victor is buried in Mont Houn Military Cemetery, grave number 663B.

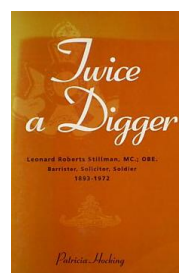

A sister, Lucy Elizabeth, married John Mitchell Norris in 1912. John served in WW1 as Sapper 22312 in the Field Company Engineers, but did not embark until March 1918. He returned to Australia in August 1919.

His youngest brother, Arnold born in 1901 in Maryborough, became a Police Constable there. He served in a few places in Queensland, rising to the rank of Senior Sergeant when he was in Brisbane. He passed away there in 1971. Arnold's son, Leonard Victor Still married Helen Martin Steel, whose brother, Robert Martin Steel, served in WW1 as Sapper 5423 in the Mining and Tunnelling Company. Robert was born in *Scotland, was a miner and migrated to Queensland in 1911. His son, James Robert Steel born in 1922 in Ipswich, served in WW2 as Leading Aircraftman 426006 in 114 Air Sea Rescue Flight.

 Awarded MC for actions (recommendation 3rd Mar 1918):

"This Officer has acted as Battalion Intelligence Officer since last April. He has done consistent good service throughout this period. In particular during the action at POLYGON WOOD on 26th/27th September he was responsible for laying out the tapes for the Assembly Position in No Man's Land, which he accomplished coolly and correctly under a heavy fire. He afterwards guided the troops on to them with accuracy, which aided greatly in the initial stages of the attack. He reconnoitered the ground from which the attack was to be launched and during the consolidation of the position took out patrols to ascertain the position of our own and enemy troops. Throughout the whole action his work was of the greatest importance to his Commanding Officer. During the subsequent operations in that sector and in the BROODSEINDE Sector which followed, and later in the line in the WYSCHAEDE Sector in December last, his intelligence work left nothing to be desired. His energy and zeal are deserving of reward."

Mention Corps Orders on 15th Jul 1918 for actions at Morlancourt

"Previous to and during the attack by the 15th Infantry Brigade on the MORLANCOURT front, south-east of ALBERT on 4th July 1918, Lieut STILLMAN rendered valuable assistance. His reconnaissance before the attack, and the assistance he gave in laying the tapes in No Man's Land for the jumping off positions, were of great value. After the attack on the same day he made a daylight reconnaissance forward of the captured trench in connection with a supplementary attack to place that night. In doing this he was wounded, and it was mainly due his report that valuable information regarding the dispositions of the enemy was obtained. His courage and devotion to duty were of the highest order."

 Ref Map Sht 36, square G.22.c.2.6 by Rev W Meredith Halliday, attached 56th Bn, 14th Bde, AIF
 Buried Anzac Cemetery Sailly-Sur-La-Lys, I. F. 4.

"I, with others was standing in a bay, waiting orders to go over, when a HE shell, broke over him and killed him instantly. He was buried the next day in the vicinity." Pte 1518 A George, 31st Bn

"Informant states that on 19th Jul 1916, at attack from Fleurbaix, on Fromelles, which was held by the Germans, Stoddart was killed in our trenches. For full particulars apply to Sgt Griffiths, who knows all about it and was with him at the time. Stoddart was a Pioneer. Eaton Hall, at the foot of Cellar Farm Avenue, Fleurbaix, is where Stoddart is buried." Sgt 1690 W H Eggington, 31st Bn

"I am only too sorry to inform you that no error has been made. Stoddart was one of my section, and in the action of 19th & 20th July, a heavy one, was killed on the first day in attack on Fromelles, south of Armentieres. His remains are buried at Sailly, 5 miles behind firing line (I am unable to give a map reference, you can obtain same at AIF HQ, London), on 21st Jul 1916. I was on duties keeping our ammunition supply between our front line and captured German trenches. I had charge of Stoddart and others, a number of whom were killed or wounded by the shell that accounted for Stoddart. His death was instantaneous, fragments of shell penetrating the chest, more likely the heart. He fell in my arms and never spoke or showed any signs of life after being hit. Trusting this information will help you. I also intend writing to his next of kin at once. I am sorry I am unable to give a description clearly of his personal appearance, having had charge of so many men and faces continually changing, I may make mistakes which would only confuse you."

The secretary of the Melbourne club, A. M. Gordon, together with H. S. Stiles and J. M. Stuart, of the Essendon club, left for Egypt last week. The latter, before leaving, affirmed his intention of changing his name to Abercrombie or a Beckett, the reason being that when about to leave with the rest of his company on a previous transport the alphabetical position of his name had, when the steamer proved to be overcrowded at the last moment, been the cause of him waving a farewell to the transport instead of from it. A valuable tropical outfit was contained in his luggage, well stowed away in the hold, and though ordinarily a pronounced optimist, Stuart, when recounting the experience, most emphatically insisted on materially altering that favorite memoriam consolation of 'Not lost but gone before.'

On 9th April 1918 the Battalion moved through Corbie and thence along the North bank of the Somme to the Pontoon Bridge, where guides led the Companies to various sectors to relieve the 58th Battalion, 15th Brigade. The relief was completed by 2.10am on 10th April, without casualties. The enemy was very quiet during the relief, but his artillery was very active during the day on Vaire to Bouzencourt. At 1.30pm the enemy shelled a farm occupied by the Battalion with 40 rounds of 5.9" and 4.2" shells.

The 34 men of III Platoon, 'A' Coy were taking shelter in the best places we could find, in a barn, trying to get some sleep after the previous night's relief. Three direct hits, by high explosive shells, on the barn, caused 27 casualties.

Those who died of wounds were: Cpl 2752 Howell Nicholls Bickford, Cpl 592A John Joseph Brooke, Pte 3528A Charles Norman Currie, Pte 2961 Mervyn Dennis Landrigan.

Lieut Henry Miller, 'A' Coy, Platoon commander, was in charge of burial party that interred the men KIA (including Pte 3526 Sydney Kingston & Pte 3862B John Russell Naismith, both 'C' Coy) at the left rear corner of the Farmhouse at Bouzancourt, (map ref I.34d) A cross was erected over each body and Battalion Padre Malcolmson buried them. Pte 2994 John Duncan McRae, III Platoon, 'A' Coy, survived unscathed

One of the men in the barn at the time when 3 shells burst amongst them (see Stubbin entry) caused 30 casualties out of 35 in our platoon. One cross bearing 11 names was erected, of the others – Tom Lynn, Stubbin, Ruskett, Prime, Ross.

He was killed by a shell while asleep in a barn in front line at Vaire, near Corbie, buried just outside the farmhouse, near a canal bank, not far from Villers Bretonneux.

We were in a barn at Bouzancourt, near Hamel when a shell burst on a barn in which Stubbin and 34 of us were sleeping. He and several others were killed outright, and a few died of wounds, while 14 of us were wounded and in hospital. I saw him buried with 9 or 10 others near the barn. We erected a cross giving all the details. Pte RH Noble, # 3604.

This shell killed or wounded 27 other ranks. Lt H Miller, 'A' Coy, in charge of burial party that interred this man and 9 others at the left rear corner of the Farmhouse at Bouzencourt, (map ref I.34d) A cross erected over each body, Bn padre Malcolmson buried them. Only arrived the night before, so taking shelter in best places we could find. (Red Cross file)
Pte John Andersen, 718A 'A' Coy, III Platoon, wounded.

About 11.45pm on the night of 14th May 1918, I saw Sgt Coyne come into our trench and heard him say he was going to test one of the bombs. There were six of us beside Sgt Coyne in the trench at the time, some being in their dugouts/shelters. As it was dark at the time, I couldn't say how the accident happened. I next heard Sgt Coyne say "Get out of the trench. I've dropped the bomb in it." I next heard the explosion and immediately asked "Is anyone hurt?" Sgt Coyne replied, "Yes Sully, I've got the full issue. I laid on the bomb. I didn't think you had time to get out." He then asked me "Is anyone else hit?" I told him "No". He answered "I'm glad of that." I've seen Sgt Coyne in the trench several times inspecting the supply of bombs."

Appointed L/Cpl on 1st August 1918

Awarded MM for actions at Villers Carbonnel on 29th Aug 1918

"For gallantry and devotion to duty. Near VILLERS CARBONNEL on 30/8/18 this NCO led his section on across the Somme with great dash and gallantry in the face of heavy artillery and machine gun fire. He engaged the enemy himself accounting for several and afforded protection for rear sections to cross. Throughout the operations he showed great powers of leadership, courage and devotion to duty and set a splendid example to his section."

WIA (GSW R hand) at Vermand, on 8th Sep 1918

Admitted 8th Fld Amb (SW R hand) and transferred to CCS, on 8th Sep 1918

Awarded Bar to MM at Vermand on 9th Sep 1918

"For conspicuous gallantry, determination and untiring devotion to duty at VERMAND. On 9th September 1918 this NCO was one of a fighting patrol which came in contact with a superior enemy force. The enemy brought heavy Artillery and Machine Gun fire to bear and the patrol was forced to withdraw. Lance-Corporal SYKES in the face of very heavy artillery and machine gun fire, set a fine example of courage and coolness by the skillful way in which he handled his section. Although severely wounded having half his hand blown off, he kept his guns in action, thereby allowing his section to reach a place of safety. By his courage, determination and self-sacrificing devotion to duty, he set a very fine example to the men under his command."

Admitted 5th CCS (GSW hand) on 8th Sep 1918

Transferred to Amb Train on 9th Sep 1918

Admitted 5th Gen Hospital, Rouen, (GSW R hand) on 10th Sep 1918

"26th Jan 1922. The authorities in London advise that information has been received by them of recovery of a body of an Australian soldier in whose grave three discs were found, and one of these discs bore the regimental particulars of the late L/Cpl A Symonds, 31st Battalion. From the locality in which the body was discovered, and the fact that Symonds was killed on a later date than the other two, it is believed that the remains, which have been re-interred in grave 9, row C, plot 9, of the Duhallow Advanced Dressing Station Cemetery, are those of the late L/Cpl A Symonds. (the other disc belonged to Pte W C Delacey, 31st Bn, KIA a day earlier on 10th Oct 1917, and therefore it is more likely Symonds, a NCO, would be in possession of the three discs, and the probability that he and Delacey were comrades in the same Platoon. L/Cpl Symonds evidently took possession of his comrade's disc, intending to forward it to next of kin, and succumbed before the intention could be carried into effect."

"Dear Mrs Till: It is with profound regret that I inform you that your brother Pte 3333 E Symonds, 31st Battalion, died of wounds received on 26/9/17, at Polygon Wood, Belgium. Our fullest sympathy goes out to you dear, brave women at home, who are called upon to bear the heaviest burden of this awful war. Although your loss is irreparable, and your grief heavy, you have reason to be proud, for your brother displayed great gallantry and died a true hero. He never hesitated to make the supreme sacrifice, and exemplify the greater love. We can never speak, nor think too highly of our brave lads. They are simply magnificent in action, calm in danger, cheerful in privation; whilst, as comrades, true as steel. Their memory will ever be sacred to me. We pray that the God of all consideration may comfort you. Cast all your care upon Him for He careth with an everlasting love. With my deepest sympathy, etc Captain Chaplain John Alexander Malcolmson, (31st Bn Padre).

"One of the oldest identities in South-western Queensland, Mr. William Kerr Symons. died at Cunnamulla, on August 8. The late Mr. Symons was aged about sixty-eight years, and was born in Dumfries, Scotland. In his youth he worked in a bank in Dumfries, and came to Australia when a young man for health reasons. Arriving here about 50 years ago. he took up pastoral work immediately. For some time, he was associated with Merewether's, a well-known pastoral firm in New South Wales. Afterwards he was connected with Harrison, Jones, and Devlin, wool brokers, and later was a partner in the firm of Beardmore, Symons, and Fletcher, one of the largest droving firms in Australia. He owned the property known as Howlong, Cunnamulla, since 1900. He went to the war in 1915 and returned after the Armistice."
