“Wednesday 17,1917. Sighted the coast early in the morning, arrived about ten AM. We did not draw into the wharves until after 1 PM. A march was taken to the city and general leave granted for the evening. The YM said that they would supply me with envelopes. Cold all day and night.

Friday 19. Received a donation of 1/-. Left Durban early in the morning and had a pleasant run along the coast. The C.E. held their song service and I assisted. Had a talk with the Padre and was encouraged to go on in the work.

Monday 22. Arrived in Cape Town, not very favourably impressed too windy.

Tuesday 30. Early this morning we steamed out of Table Bay. The boats look a picture steaming out we were the last to be on the move as our steaming gear wasn't of order and almost ran our escort down which was at anchor. The Barambah has taken the lead of one line and the Demosthenes the other. The boats steaming along in order with the escorts ahead, is a magnificent sight. This evening, I was watching the moon and many moonlit nights of Australia came to my mind.”
