James was another original 'A' Coy member and sailed to Egypt as a Corporal with the Battalion. Having seen action at Fromelles, he was afterwards promoted Sergeant. He was in hospital sick before his leave to England in December 1916. Medical issues delayed his rejoining the Battalion until May 1917. An accident at Anzac Corps School saw him miss the Battle of Polygon Wood, and not rejoining the Battalion until May 1918. Another unfortunate incident saw him 'reduced to the ranks' prior to him joining III Platoon as a Private in July 1918. Killed by HE shell, no particulars of burial.
Though McFarlane buried Sht 62, O.25.c.6.5, close to Villers Carbonnel
See below
Gard, 3237 "On the Somme near Villers Carbonnel killed on 29th August 1918; we were trying to take a forward position to cross the River, hit about 3pm, in the windpipe – just groaned and died very soon after, could not speak. Buried near where he was killed. We dug 5 graves and buried them there – O'Donohue, Ben McFarlane, Felix Hamilton all 16 Pltn and Gard is 14 or 15 Pltn. I knew him very well. It was night time when we buried them, so I can't say I buried Gard, but he is buried there."

T.R Mackie, 2049, 31st Bn

Hamilton, 4072 “Killed at Villers Carbonnel on Aug 29th. Went into action on 28th and when he fell he was on No 1 machine gun team and next to informants No 2. When advancing at 1pm and 10 yards off the final objective a shell landed killing him and two others instantaneously – the two others being Ptes McFarlane and O’Donohue. The position at Villers Carbonnel was on top of the ridge in amongst huts and apparently an old hospital or CCS. Here they were buried on the spot previously used as a cemetery – each with a small identification cross. Informant is almost sure that the Battalion later erected a substantial cross. Hamilton was 5’9” in height, had dark hair and was known as ‘Felix’. Enlisted in Queensland but resided in Melbourne. Came away with the 10th Reinforcements to 31st Bn about Oct 1916. Met him when he arrived in England and in France knew him for a year being in the same Platoon and Coy –‘D’. Was a lively chap and a good soldier.” Pte Arthur Stanley Gilbert, 3814, XVI Platoon, ‘D’ Coy, 31st Bn

One of the men in the barn at the time that 3 shells burst amongst them (see Stubbin entry) caused 30 casualties out of 35 in our platoon. One cross bearing 11 names was erected, of the others – Tom Lynn, Stubbin, Ruskett, Prime, Ross. He was wounded by a shell while asleep in a barn in front line at Vaire, near Corbie, near a canal bank, not far from Villers Bretonneux.
We were in a barn at Bouzancourt, near Hamel when a shell burst on a barn in which Stubbin and 34 of us were sleeping. He and several others were killed outright, and a few died of wounds, while 14 of us were wounded and in hospital. I saw him buried with 9 or 10 others near the barn. We erected a cross giving all the details. Pte RH Noble, # 3604.
This shell killed or wounded 27 other ranks. Lt H Miller, 'A' Coy, in charge of burial party that interred this man and 9 others at the left rear corner of the Farmhouse at Bouzancourt, (map ref I.34d) A cross erected over each body, Bn padre Malcolmson buried them. Only arrived the night before, so taking shelter in best places we could find. (Red Cross file)

Moved to Rossell Island, Papua, (in Milne Bay Province) Probably setting up a plantation.

Not sure of Duncan's death though his plantation possibly survived till the 1960s

Records mention Blanche Mercedes and her sons Hugh Frank and Ronald Henry Osborne.

As an aside; During the Battle of the Coral Sea, the USS Lexington launched 53 Douglas

SBD Dive bombers, against the Japanese aircraft carrier Shoho, on 7th May 1942. Pilot Ensign 'Tony' Quigley and Aviation Radioman RE Wheelhouse, were hit by AA fire and unable to return to their ship. They ditched in the lagoon of Rossell Island, and both crew members were assisted by locals who took them to the plantation house AVALETTI (Osborne Bros plantation) owned by Mr. Osborne. On May 26, 1942, the Australian vessel MV Laurabada, after an uncomfortable trip passed through the passage in the off-shore reef, and anchored off the plantation, where they noticed a red S.O.S. painted in red on the roof of the plantation managers house.

MV 'Laurabada'

Duncan Osborne may also have been familiar with his previous OC 'D' Coy, 31st Bn, Capt Robert Clegg Aland, MC, who also moved to the islands, post war, as a Civil Servant. Bobby Aland, died on 23rd Mar 1932 (at Bougainville) of pneumonia, at Buka Passage, New Guinea,

"Pte JT Howard was killed on a raid on 25th May 1918"

told by Lieut Jennings to Cpl 4353 LM Osborne, 'C' Coy, 31st Bn
 On 25th May 1918 (from War Diary) "At 3.15 a.m. a raiding party consisting of Lieut Thompson, MC, and Lieut Jennings, MC, and 42 OR attempted to raid enemy trench in P.5.a.3.3. Party was divided into two parties of 1 NCO and 10 men with Lewis Gun as covering parties, and Assault party consisted of Lieut Jennings, MC, and 20 OR. Covering parties were posted in J.34.d.4.0 and J.34.d.9.0. Lieut Thompson, MC, O/C Raid, was established at latter point with telephones and Pte Mildare, the latter to act as interrupter. The Assault party moved out and started wire cutting about 1.30 a.m. the two Bangalore Torpedoes being taken out by two sappers A.E. for use if necessary. Three belts of wire had been cut and party were on fourth when they were heard and M.G. fire and bombs were directed at them. The party sustained casualties – 3 killed and 7 wounded – and as the element of surprise had gone, it was impossible to carry on with the raid. Party withdrew to our lines with all the wounded and bodies of two men. The body of the third man had to be left in enemy wire. An attempt was made to recover it, but it was impossible as it was within bombing range."

Lt Col Toll on his post battle report on men due for recognition, stated “also beg to bring to your notice Sergeant O’Sullivan ? for recognition of his splendid organisation and control of men. His behaviour was worthy of special notice and I pass it on for his CO’s information.

An N.C.O. of the 29th also deserves mention. This N.C.O. brought over and was in charge of two platoons of the 29th and behaved most courageously. I will try and ascertain his name later.”

Awarded DCM for actions: “Petillon 19-20 July 1916: For conspicuous gallantry during operations. When posted with 30 men in the main trench to link up with another battalion, he behaved in a most cool and determined manner, and held the ground allotted to him till daylight.”

In a letter from Sgt McLelland, 29th Bn, to Reg’s father: “You were asking about a Sgt O’Sullivan in our Company. Well, he was here up till a few days ago. He is attached to another Battalion now, but in the same Brigade. He has got his Commission, and my word, he deserves it. He has also received a DCM for bravery. A short time ago we made a charge, and held the trenches for about nine hours when the Germans counter attacked, and we had to retire. An officer and Sergt O’Sullivan were there till the last, and then brought a machine-gun back to our front line, and turned it on the Germans. The Sergeant wasn’t satisfied with that, but he goes out and brings in three wounded men. He is indeed a brave man, and well deserves his DCM.”

On 9th April 1918 the Battalion moved through Corbie and thence along the North bank of the Somme to the Pontoon Bridge, where guides led the Companies to various sectors to relieve the 58th Battalion, 15th Brigade. The relief was completed by 2.10am on 10th April, without casualties. The enemy was very quiet during the relief, but his artillery was very active during the day on Vaire to Bouzencourt. At 1.30pm the enemy shelled a farm occupied by the Battalion with 40 rounds of 5.9" and 4.2" shells.

The 34 men of III Platoon, 'A' Coy were taking shelter in the best places we could find, in a barn, trying to get some sleep after the previous night's relief. Three direct hits, by high explosive shells, on the barn, caused 27 casualties.
