Outcome	RTA per A8 'Osterley' for termination of appointment, via Capetown, on 31 st Jan 1918
Notes	Original, HQ/ Quartermaster, 31 st Bn Appointed Honorary Lieut & Quartermaster, on 7 th Oct 1915 Embarked at Melbourne, on HMAT A62 "WANDILLA", on 9 th Nov 1915 Battalion Quartermaster Disembarked at Suez, Egypt on 7 th Dec 1915 Posted on Friday, March 17, 1916 - Hon Lieutenant Thomas Francis Faine, Quartermaster, reported for moving a sentry off his post from QM store to Armourers Shop, relieved of his duties. Board of Inquiry appointed to inquire into state of the Quartermaster department: Major Charles Edward Clements as President Lieutenant Eustace Murphy, Member Lieutenant Reginald Kenneth Hibbs, Member. CO 31 st Bn at Ferry Post, recommended Hon. Lieut. & Quartermaster F.G. FAINE, for Return to Australia, on 13 th May 1916 Apparently, a bit of a scandal because the Hon. Lt Quartermaster Faine was relieved of his command and sent to a training Battalion in England and eventually back to Australia some 12 months later. Apparently, there were numerous deficiencies with stores, ammunition and food. At one stage the troops went 2 weeks without potatoes or milk. It was at this time the Battalion Quartermaster was sent home in disgrace. There were 3 different enquiries held and they all found that the "Hon Lt Quartermaster" was completely incompetent". From the proceeding of three Courts of Inquiry, the evidence is conclusive that QM & Hon Lieut Faine is quite unsuitable, for the position of Quartermaster of 31 st Battalion. The chaotic state of the books which were in charge of this Officer show that he has grossly neglected his duty. The work of Hon Lieut Faine, since leaving Australia has been very unsatisfactory. At Ferry Post, on 13 th May 1916, by Brig Gen E Tivey, GOC, 8 th Inf Bde First issue Mark VII Ammunition received, on 11 th May 1916, Ferry Post. Hon. Lieut. & Quartermaster F.G. FAINE returned to Australia and Sgt. SPARKS appointed 2nd Lieut. & QM. The Corps Commander approves of QM & Hon Lieut Faine, 31 st Bn, AIF, being transferred to Training and Base Depot, Tel el Kebir, on 2 nd Jun 1916 Embarked on HMT 'Franconia' at Alexandria, with Platoon, of 8 th Trng Bn, on 6 th Jun 1916 Disembarked at Plymouth on 16 th Jun 1916 Marched in to Rifle Course, Hayling Island, on 26 th Oct 1916 The GOC, 5 th Aust Div, makes the following remarks re QM & Hon Lieut Faine, 8 th Trng Bn. - On 14th Sep 1916, I learnt from Brig Gen Sir N Moore, that QM & Hon Lieut Faine was on the staff of 8th Trng Bn, at Salisbury. I do not consider QM & Hon Lieut Faine can possibly be suited for this work. - If he can be profitably be used as a Musketry Instructor, I recommend this course. A report should be obtained on this point from Brig Gen Sir H Moore. Will you please inform me whether you consider this Officer can be usefully employed as a musketry instructor, and if there is a vacancy in any of the battalions of your Group. Lt Col F Moffitt, GSO 1, AIF Depots in UK, Tidworth, on 7th Dec 1916 Posted for duty with 8th Trng Bn, on 14th Dec 1916

Lieut G Faine has not been employed as Quartermaster, but as Entrenching Officer, in which he is a capable Instructor, and though somewhat stoic, gives satisfaction. He has also under-studied the Battalion Musketry Officer, having obtained at Hayling Island, 1st Class, and instructs in musketry when not employed as Entrenching Officer. Lt Col P P Abbott, Commanding, No 5 Group Training Area, AIF
QM & Hon Lieut Faine, 31st Bn, originally ordered to return to Australia, by GOC, 2nd Anzac, but now doing duty with Trng Bn at Salisbury Downs – considered he could be usefully employed in present position as entrenching and Musketry Officer to 8th Trng Bn
Will act as Conducting officer and after handing over his draft, will rejoin his unit.

2 MEN FOUND DEAD ON SATURDAY

Two men were found dead in the city area on Saturday. In neither case do the police suspect foul play. The men were Joseph Farr, who was found with his throat cut at Baddow, and Harry Holt, who was found shot through the heart at Magnolia.

HEAD NEARLY OFF

With his head almost severed, and a blade razor clenched in his right hand, the body of Joseph Farr (59) was found in his camp in Walton's Paddock about 3 o'clock on Saturday afternoon. The police were notified by another camper and Plain Clothes Constable R. Quinn and Constable D. O'Brien were detailed to investigate the matter. The post-mortem revealed that death could have taken place up to ten hours prior to the finding of the body. The police are satisfied that there are no suspicious circumstances. Deceased was a war pensioner and had been resident at the place where his death occurred for the last two years.

D.0.17.c.4.3) Plot 3, Row F, Grave 10 "I knew him slightly. He was medium build, dark, and with no particular traits. About the 18th June we were in support at Sailly le Sec. In the afternoon, Farrell was carrying rations when he was hit by a shell and blown out of the trench. I saw his body on a stretcher, and it is buried at a little cemetery beside the RAP, about a mile to the north of Vaux." Pte 1563 Henry Richard Taylor, XIV Platoon, 'D' Coy, 31st Bn "Farrell was killed whilst carrying rations on the Vaux sector. I was close to him and saw him hit in the back. He died on the way to the Dressing Station. He was buried at Vaux Cemetery. He was a fair, single man of medium height who was a signaller." Pte 4811 John Frederick Westmoreland, 'A' Coy, 31st Bn "I saw him killed by a whizz-bang shell instantly, at 2am walking along a sap, to rations, at Sailly-le-Sec Holding Line. The MO told me he died more from shock than wounds. Buried close by, with others. Enlisted at Gympie, Queensland. Parents live there. Age 20, 5'10", well built, dark, came over on boat 'Hororata' A20." Pte 5155 Arthur Davidson Williams, HQ Signals, 'D' Coy, 31st Bn "I knew a Farrell, I think in 'D' Coy, left Australia as a Corporal, tall, dark, well built, about 23, had not been wounded before and had not been long with the Battalion. I was coming down traverse at Morlancourt, when I saw them carrying Farrell out of the trench. He had been killed by a shell which dropped in the trench. He was buried in an old French Cemetery, between the reserve and front line. The 32nd Battalion were holding the front line, and we were in reserve." Pte 4819 Thomas James Brunker, 'B' Coy, 31st Bn "I was not an eye-witness, but received the information from Eaves, of the same company. About midnight, on 18th June 1918, Farrell was going down to Battalion HQ for rations. The enemy were shelling heavily at the time, and Farrell was killed and two others were wounded. His body was buried in a cemetery in front of the Company's trench. Place of occurrence, Sailly-le-Sec." Pte 1014 William Edwards, Signaller, 'D' Coy HQ, 31st Bn "Re 5014 Sgt R B Farrell, 2nd Pltn, 'D' Coy, 31st Bn, reported killed on 16/6/18. I have every reason to believe that the soldier in question was 5014 Sig R L Farrell, 'D' Coy, HQ, 31st Bn, killed on 18/6/18. Sig Farrell and myself were walking down a sap, when a shell burst nearby, killing Roy Farrell instantly and wounding myself. I have every reason to believe that he was killed instantaneously, as when I spoke to him, I couldn't get an answer. It was very dark at the time and I couldn't find out much. I went away from the Bn to hospital, and never actually saw him buried, but from information received I have every reason to believe that he is buried in a soldier's cemetery, this being so, his grave should be registered. At least two of his pals have written to his people giving them details, and our OC also sent them particulars about a month or 5 weeks ago. He was about 5'9" or 10" in height, well built, dark complexion, and he had jet black hair. His name was Roy Linden Farrell, 5014, a Signaller, in 'D' Coy, and was in the 14th Rfts, 31st Bn." Sig 1066 T Eaves, 'D' Coy, 31st Bn

FIELDER

Herbert Joseph

'Joe'

Herbert Joseph FIELDER

Years back when I first started research into the 31st Battalion, I came across a photo of Herbert Joseph Fielder (known as Joe) at the AWM website. The interest was that a neighbour across the road in Nerissa Grove, Oak Park, was one of his children, the second youngest, (Olive Gaynor). Upon enlistment on 16th Sep 1915, Joe was married to Elsie and they had a child, Herbie, and Elsie was carrying Ray. Joe served throughout the war until wounded on 27th May 1918. According to Lt Searle, Transport Officer, "The precincts of the camp were shelled heavily every day, but only three 'duds' landed in the camp itself, doing no damage. L/Corporal Fielder was wounded in the head by a piece of shell which burst about 200 yards away." Joe had received a shell wound (penetrating, left frontal) and was duly evacuated and treated at 1st London General Hospital, Camberwell and 1st Australian Auxiliary Hospital, Harefield, until his return to Australia, arriving in February 1919. Joe resumed married life at 52 Barkly St, East Brunswick, Melbourne, and twins Eric and Ailsa were born later in 1919. Rita, Olive and Valerie were borne in subsequent years, though it appears that Joe was suffering the effects of his head wound and it was not a happy household with probable domestic violence and alcohol problems. In 1929 the family moved to 124 Melville Rd, West Brunswick and it seems Joe left the family there. When I showed Olive her father's pre-war photo, she fired up stating "he was a monster.... No that's not him." It is Joe's photo, though Olive would have been about 8yrs when he left the family and would have had a disfigurement in regards to the photo. Herbert Joseph 'Joe' Fielder died at Heidelberg Repatriation Hospital on 18th June 1955, aged 71 years. His service with the 31st Battalion (Transport) follows: -

"At about 6am on 26th Sep 1917 the 31st and 59th Battalions, attacked the enemy positions on Zonnebeke Ridge, near Passchendaele. The Menin Road was our right flank. To reach our objective we had to advance about 500 yards. Our losses in the advance were not great. We reached our sector of the ridge and found that we had no support on either right or left. There would be about 50 of us all told, but the majority of these were shot down by enemy snipers and machine guns, shortly after reaching the summit of the ridge. The Trench Mortar men had one gun, but no live shells beyond smoke shells. We had been instructed to pick up live ammunition in the front line, but we found none there. We advanced about 50 yards over the ridge – what was left of us, about 23 – until the enemy machine guns properly held us up. We took cover in shell-holes and sustained rifle fire as long as we could. The enemy machine guns kept us down under cover. The enemy fire came from both flanks and from the rear. Eventually a party of enemy infantry, under cover of their machine gun barrage, advanced on our left. We were a divided party in separate shell-holes. The enemy called on us to surrender and we did so. We had no alternative. In another shell-hole on our left was Lieut Castles of the 29th Battalion. We saw him surrender before we were called upon to surrender. Lieut Hill of the LTMB, badly wounded – one eye having been knocked out – was in a hole nearby. A party of 18 of us were marched to Courtrai via Roulers, being searched at the latter place. We got to Dulmen on 11th Nov 1917, having up till then being locked up in a disused factory at Dendermonde. After a month at Dulmen, we were sent to Dyrotz, some 30 kilometers from Berlin. Some of us were sent out 'on commando', others were put to building an aerodrome at Dyrotz. On the signing of the Armistice, all commandos were call in to Dyrotz. Thence we were sent to Stettin via Altdamm. We left Stettin for Copenhagen by the SS 'Queen Maude' on 3rd Dec 1918. After eight days in camp at Lillereg near Copenhagen, we crossed to Leith in the SS 'Ajex'. We arrived at Leith on 16th Dec 1918. It was not until the end of February 1918 – five months after our capture, that we received out Red Cross parcels. Pte E Fisher when captured, had a bullet wound in the left leg." KIA at Vaires, near Corbie, on 10th Apr 1918 On Somme Canal, Vaires, in front of Corbie, behind Hamel, about 11 pm killed by HE shell splinter, Pte Milward, 'A' Coy, II Platoon, Killed by same shell and Cpl C.G. Davies. Buried by Lt JM Nelson (see Red Cross file)

Buried at Adelaide Cemetery Villers-Bretonneux III. S. 12.

"I knew Pte V.R. Fitzgerald, 'A' Coy, II Platoon, about 25, medium height, slight, fair, clean-shaven, single, a very happy boy. I was right alongside him on the Somme Canal, behind Hamel, about 11pm about 10th April 1918, dark, when he was hit by a shell splinter. He lived for 20 minutes, unconscious. I helped to bury him in a French Cemetery in a village near Hamel and there is a large white cross on his grave. Pte Milward, 'A' Coy, II Platoon, who was killed by the same shell, is buried alongside. His name is also on the cross."

Pte 4759A G.P Faux, 'A' Coy, II Platoon
"He was of 'A' Coy, II Platoon. In April, in the lines, in front of Corbie, killed by a shell, same shell killed Pte Millward and Cpl Davies, both of 'A' Coy. I did not see him before or after it happened, men of platoon told me how he was killed. He was buried along with Millward and Davies about 100 yards behind the lines. I saw the grave, wooden white cross erected with the three men's names on it. Knew him as Fitz."

Pte P.J. Carmody, 31st Bn, 'D' Coy, late of 'A' Coy
"I think both were Brisbane men or from Northern Rivers, NSW. (Fitzgerald & Davey). I have seen both their graves up behind Vaires, Corbie, in front of Hamel, not in a cemetery but in the open. The graves are about 100 yards apart. Each has a cross with names etc on it. I was in the next trench to them. Fitzgerald was killed about 5.30am by shell, killed instantaneously, and Davey was killed the same way. Fitzgerald was sandy and about 5ft 4in. Both were in AII." Pte 212 W.P. Haynes, II Platoon, 'A' Coy, 31st Bn
"Fitzgerald was killed by a shell at Vaires, on 10th Apr 1918 and was buried near the village about 100 yards away from where he was killed. He was buried by Lt J.M. Nelson and a Cross was erected over his grave. We stopped the Germans at this point and they never came over this ground."

 Bertie now applied himself to painting and was with the Heidelberg School of Painters. He exhibited some of his paintings at the Heidelberg art exhibition of 4-9th May 1937 along with the notables of the likes of M. Napier Waller, Sir John Longstaff, J. Douglas Smart, and others. And again, at the Kozminsky Art Gallery, Bourke St, Melbourne where a review cited "Amazement that men torn in mind and body in wars could depict the tranquil pictures surrounding him was expressed by Mr. Holland, RSL State President, when opening an exhibition of paintings by Mr. B Fiven, a returned soldier of the last war at Kozminsky Gallery. Mr. Fiven, he said, was a Lieutenant in the 31st Battalion in the last war. By his work he indicated that he had overcome the mental disturbance of that war." Then later in July 1947, Bertie had a show of oil landscapes at the Athenaeum Gallery.

Some works that were known to be by Bertie are "Mernda, Victoria" oil on canvas, signed lower left, "The Overgrown Track" oil on canvas, signed lower left, "Kangaroo Ground" oil on canvas on board, signed lower right, "Parkdale Beach" oil on canvas on board, signed lower right, "The Farm at Alphington" oil on canvas on board, signed and dated 1944 on lower right. One wonders where these are now and if they are appreciated as the works of one who has served with distinction. Bertie Studley Fiven passed away at Heidelberg in 1958. Buried Fawkner Memorial Park, Fawkner, Melbourne, (ashes scattered at cemetery)

 Buried in vicinity of Polygon Wood,
 Buried by X Corps BO, Sht 28NW, J.14.b.4.2

“I saw him killed at Polygon Wood and death was instantaneous. He was hit by a shell on the body when going into the line about midnight. I was quite close to him and took his identification discs and pay book from him, handing them into Company Headquarters. I knew him well and know of no other man of similar name in the company. I did not see his grave, but he was sure to be buried by the pioneers as he was well behind the line at time of casualty. Refer to Pioneer Sgt Maher, 31st Btn Hqrs.”

Sgt 4636 Albert George O'Mally, ‘D’ Coy, 31st Bn

“We were to attack in front of Polygon Wood in the morning (5.30am) 26th Sep 1917. Fleet was killed the day previously, in the morning at 4.30 am by a shell which burst almost on him as he was in a shell hole. I was in another shell hole about 107 yds away. As the shell fell, the men near me said ‘Fleet is killed’. I did not see his dead body, but I am assured he was killed outright and I doubt if there were any remains. I gave this report to Battalion, and to his brother about four or five weeks later at Kemmel. Medium height, slim, dark, about 24.”

Pte 2470 Hugh Connell, ‘D’ Coy, 31st Bn

“5’8”, medium complexion, about 34/35. From Casino, NSW. About 6am, on 26th/27th Sep 1917, Fleet was hit by a shell and killed outright, at Polygon Wood. I saw him about 2 hours after he was killed. Don’t know anything about his burial but he was probably buried on the field, as the dead were being buried there where they fell at that time.”

Pte 3192 J Cameron, XI Platoon, ‘C’ Coy, 31st Bn

“Fleet was killed at Polygon Wood, on 26th Sep 1917. I saw him killed by a whizz-bang and the following morning he was still lying where he fell. Do not know about burial. He was 5’8”, medium built, dark, and about 26 years.”

Shell landed killing 9 men outright at the relieving point in the support line (Red Cross file) G.M. Grant

Among them Sgt R Fleming, W.A. Ellis, Ecykems, R. Anderson, G.M. Grant

KIA on 29th Sep 1917 at Polygon Wood ('C' Coy, RO 566)

Buried at Westhoek Sht 28. Ed 1a, J.15.b.1.9) 1200 yards N of GHELUVELT.

"Being relieved in Support Line after Polygon Wood stunt, Black Watch Corner, a 9.2 shell landed on a dud 5.2 exploding both, killing 9 men outright at the relieving point in the support line. All blown to pieces and not buried for obvious reasons. Among them Sgt R Fleming, W.A. Ellis, Eyckens, R. Anderson, G.M. Grant, Wells, Ekin, Emery, Meeham, Cpl Shaw, Cpl Johnson"

A J Saph, 'C' Coy, 31st Bn

"Sgt Fleming was Platoon Sergeant of No 11 Platoon to which I belong. The Company was in action at POLYGON WOOD.

No 11 Platoon was going out of the line in small parties of three. Sgt Fleming was standing in the trench with a watch in his hand timing the parties as they marched out – five minutes being allowed between each party.

A shell exploded in the trench burying ten men, eight of which were killed. L/Cpl McNamara and myself being the only two who escaped. I next saw Sgt Fleming lying in the bottom of the trench dead.

He appeared to me to have been killed by concussion. That was the last I saw of Sgt Fleming, but I heard later that he had been buried by the relieving party. (Map Ref of Grave. Westhoek Sht 28. Ed 1a,

J.15.b.1.9) 1200 yards N of GHELUVELT."

Pte F Pontee, XI Platoon, 'C' Coy 31st Bn

"I saw him killed. A shell fell right between his feet killing him instantly and burying him at the same time. He was never dug out. This happened at Black Watch Corner, behind Polygon Wood. I knew him in the Coy, I was his runner, He came over with the 4th Rfts of the battalion, leaving Melbourne in March 1916, on the transport Anchises. He came from NSW. He was well liked by all."

Pte 4157 J D McNamara, 'C'

Coy, 31st Bn

"I knew Sergeant Fleming. He came from Muswellbrook. I knew his people, but have not written to them yet. I intend to do so. Fleming was killed at Hell Fire Corner to the west of Polygon Wood. I think it was on the evening of the 30th. They went in on the 26th, this was their fourth day and they were just coming out when a big shell got in among them. Fleming had charge of the Company at the time, all the Officers had been killed. It was not my Company but I was there. I was hit the same day later on."

Pte 2355

Kiernan

"I with several other officers was in a Pill Box at Black Watch Corner, Polygon Wood on 29th Sept 1917, when word was brought to me that a high explosive shell had fallen on a trench close by. When I reached this trench, I found that the shell had completely destroyed the trench, killing and burying the occupants, amongst whom was Sgt Fleming and it is believed 11 other men. We tried to disinter the bodies, but could do little, as they were all blown to pieces. He was the finest soldier we had in the battalion. I was only able to identify his head."

Lieut T J Judge, IV Platoon, 'A' Coy, 31st Bn

"I saw him killed. He was in a dugout in the support lines at the time at Polygon Wood, when a shell came over and blew the dugout in. He was practically blown to pieces; I could not say whether his remains were buried. I knew him well, we came over together with the 4th Rfts of the battalion on the transport Anchises, leaving Melbourne in March 1916. He came from NSW. He was well liked by all in the coy."

Pte 2479 Connell, 'C' Coy, 31st Bn

Fleming and Eyckens: "These two men were killed by a shell which landed in our support lines on September 29th at Polygon Wood, while we were waiting to be relieved. We were both near them and saw their dead bodies after the shell had burst. We know nothing as to burial as we were relieved soon afterwards. Eyckens was batman to Major Tracy. Fleming was Platoon Sgt, XI Platoon, 'C' Coy."

Cpl 682 J H Barling and Pte 539 C Kulhmann, both 'C' Coy.

"I was present when they were killed at Black Watch Corner on 29th Sept, in supports as described. I know nothing as to burial."

Sgt 653 H N Edwards, 'C' Coy, 31st Bn

"I knew a man called Ron Fleming in 'C' Coy. He was a Sergeant and was in command of No XI Platoon. I do not know his number, nor did I know anything of him before the war. He was fair, clean shaven, about 5'10" and about 26 or 27. I was told by Pte Reynolds on 'C' IX, that a shell had fallen in to a shell hole and killed about 8 men of whom Fleming was one and Cpl Shaw another. Reynolds told me he had been in the same shell hole with these men but had left it shortly before the shell exploded. This occurred about 29th Sept, but I am not quite sure on which front."

Pte 2889 J Brite, IX Platoon, 'C' Coy, 31st Bn

"They were all blown to pieces by the same shell in a support trench after the Polygon Wood stunt. They were not buried for obvious reasons. The same shell got about 10."

Cpl 633 W A Decis,

31st Bn

"Eyckens was a mate of mine. He came from Victoria. Fleming was a Sergeant. I know his initials. He came from Victoria. Shaw was a Corporal. I know his initials are correct. He came from Brisbane. I was told by Pte Skuse, of 31st Bn, 'C' Coy, IX Platoon, that he saw the three men killed by the same shell at the same date about the 29th Sept 1917. They were all in the same dugout together. This happened two days after our attack near Polygon Wood."

Pte 152 J R Wilson, IX Platoon, 'C' Coy, 31st Bn

"Fleming was a mate of mine in 'C' Coy, he was tall, fair and slight build, and went into camp with me at Newcastle in 1915 and left Australia with the 4th Rfts to 31st Battalion. His name was Ron and he was a Sergeant. Pte Armstrong was also a mate of Fleming and told me in England at Monte Video in October last, that he was with Fleming going into the attack on the Somme when Fleming was killed. I asked Armstrong about Sgt Fleming and asked me if I referred to Ron Fleming, and when I said 'Yes' he told me the above, but did not tell me when it happened but that it was on the Somme."

Re death of Pte Joseph Edward Burton, KIA, on 26th Sep 1917: "I saw his dead body lying in a shell hole during the morning of the advance at Polygon Wood, on 26th September 1917. He had been killed by a shell. A man called Floyd, III Platoon, 'A' Coy, still alive, was there with him, with both his legs blown off. I went into the shell hole to help Floyd, and saw Burton's body closely. I know nothing as to burial as I had to carry on. Burton belonged to IV Platoon, 'A' Coy." Cpl 3643 Alex Thomson, 'A' Coy, 31st Bn

Cpl 3643A, Alex Thomson, letter to Paddy Bugden's family on 29th October 1917:

"I had a very thrilling and unique experience in the big stunt which I am now going to relate to you," he wrote. "After we had advanced and gained our objectives, our boys on the right flank got the order to fall back owing to the English Division that was on our right not being able to come up. I was out in a shell hole in front and did not get the order to retire so I did not know that I was left out on my own. When 'Fritz' counter attacked us, I got two of them with my rifle but I had to duck down into the shell hole owing to a machine gun firing on me. Just then three 'Fritzes' tumbled into the shell hole on top of me giving me no chance to put up a scrap. They immediately disarmed me and the youngest 'Fritz', who was about 18 years of age, put his revolver at my head and was going to shoot. The eldest 'Fritz' of the three started gibbering away in German and eventually made the young 'Fritz' take his revolver away from my head (much to my relief!). A moment or so after the above occurred the 'Fritz' who had just saved me from being shot, made a jump into the next shell hole and got shot through the stomach. I looked up to see a private named Paddy Bugden charging up with a few men to my rescue. The other two 'Fritzes' made to get away but Bugden quickly finished them off and I was then able to get back to our lines safely. The whole of the above episode took place under very heavy shell, rifle and machine gun fire, so you can understand the debt I owe to Paddy Bugden for his bravery in rescuing me. I am exceedingly sorry to say that Bugden got killed by a shell a couple of nights later. I am glad to say that the authorities are recognising the heroism of poor old Bugden as he did some magnificent work beside what I have related. He is, I believe, getting the VC which he richly deserved."

MEN REPORTED WOUNDED.
 Advice has been received by Base Records Wellington, that 108, Temporary Corporal A. E. Forbes, 8th Machine Gun Company (late 1st Battalion), Australian Imperial Force, was admitted to Horton, County of London War Hospital, Epsom, England, on October 12, suffering from severe gunshot wounds to left thigh, wrist, and right ankle and was subsequently reported progressing favourably. The next-of-kin of Corporal Forbes is shown on the records of the Australian Imperial Force as Mr. W. Hazel (uncle), 1, Baker Street, Auckland, but communications sent to that address have been returned unclaimed, and the Base Records has not been able to trace Mr. Hazel's whereabouts.

"Fordyce came aboard at Capetown on 13th Oct 1919, after having been in hospital, there for 11 weeks. For the first two weeks or so his condition was good and he went ashore at Durban for a motor ride. During the last 5 days he took a bad turn and never rallied. He was conscious to the last and passed away quietly at 10.15am on 29th October.

He was buried with full military honours.

Informant is calling Fordyce's uncle in Adelaide."

Served WWII NX113726 (N23070) Lt Col, 19th Bn & 41st Bn
Taken on the active list when the Murwillumbah unit of the 41st Militia Bn was formed remaining with that unit until given command of the 19th Aust Inf Bn with which he went to New Guinea for about 12 months when invalided home and discharged.

Edwin Foster was born at Rous Mill on 31 January 1897, the son of Frederick E and Constance Foster (nee Snodgrass). He enlisted in Brisbane on 9 July 1915, aged 18. He was a farmer although he had studied to be a teacher, but hadn't finished the course. He left Australia on 9 November 1915 on Wandilla arriving in Egypt just before Christmas. Influenza saw him admitted to 15th Field Ambulance at Tel-el-Kebir on 3 Mar 1916. He served in France with the 31st Battalion from June 1916 and fought in the battles of Fromelles, the Somme and Bapaume where he received a gunshot wound to the left thigh on 16 March 1917 and was admitted to hospital in England. He had been promoted Corporal on 26 July 1917. After recovering he served at Villers-Bretonneux where the battalion captured the large German railway gun. On 4 January 1919 he became a 2nd Lieutenant and on 27 January he was admitted to 8th Australian Field Ambulance with a fractured fibula. He married Winifred Florence White, daughter of George White, in St Paul's Hammersmith Church on 5 July 1919. He returned to Australia on Wahehe on 15 Dec 1919. He received the Distinguished Conduct Medal for his action in France.

For conspicuous gallantry and able leadership when his company was temporarily checked by direct fire from a field battery. He did excellent work in rallying the men and working them forward. After reaching the final objective, he cleared the ground for several hundred yards in advance, inflicting severe casualties on the enemy. His example was eagerly followed by his men.

After his return to Australia, he grew bananas at Rocky Creek on the Richmond before joining the Department of Agriculture at Murwillumbah. He joined a unit of the 41st Battalion at Murwillumbah and served from 1939 to 1943. In July 1943 the battalion went to Port Moresby and then Buna. He was discharged in October 1944. He then returned to the Department of Agriculture and was an alderman on Murwillumbah Municipal Council. In 1948 he advised the British Colonial Service on the cultivation of hemp in North Borneo. He was awarded the MBE for his work there. He retired from the Department in September 1957 and lived at Broken Head Road, Byron Bay where he grew pineapples. His wife died on 28 December 1979 and he died on 19 December 1982. Both are buried at Bangalow.

FOYSTER

Robert Causton

The Rev Robert Causton Foyster is the next identified Chaplain attached to the 31st Battalion, following in the footsteps of Rev Malcomson. Robert Causton Foyster was born on 19th May 1882 at Echuca, Victoria, the son of Robert and Sarah (nee Russen) Foyster. His education was completed at Melbourne University (Ormond College) where he obtained 2nd Class Honours in History in 1901, and obtained a Master of Arts (M.A.) and Bachelor of Divinity (BD.) in 1912. He married Annie Dorothy Stephens/Reid, in Erskine Church, Carlton, on 27th November 1907, and was ordained a Presbyterian Minister in Wycheproof, Victoria the same year. They had 2 sons, John Causton Foyster, born in 1908, and Alan Robert Foyster born in 1914 at Broadford. In 1911 he was appointed to the charge at Broadford, Victoria and upon the outbreak of the World War in 1914, he provided chaplaincy services to the Light Horse recruits at Broadford and the Maribyrnong remounts camps. In 1916, he moved to Hamilton, Victoria and enlisted as Captain Chaplain (continuous service) in the AIF on 31st Aug 1917 at Maribyrnong, Victoria. The Rev Robert Causton Foyster embarked on A30 HMAS 'Borda' at Adelaide on 5th Jan 1918, disembarking at Plymouth, England on 4th Mar 1918. Having arrived from Australia he was taken on strength of AIF HQ prior to a posting to No 1 Command Depot on 15th Mar 1918. On 29th May, he proceeded overseas to France via Southampton to take up duty at AIDBD at Havre. He ceased this Chaplaincy at Havre and marched out to 8th Brigade HQ where he was posted to 31st Bn for duty on 2nd Jul 1918. He was with the battalion throughout the final 100 days advance of the Australians, from 8th Aug Battle of Amiens, attack on the Hindenberg Line to final operations at Bellicourt, Joncourt and Nauroy. In early Nov 1918 he was granted Paris leave and rejoined the Battalion on Armistice Day, 11th Nov 1918. On 23rd Dec 1918 Rev Foyster, left the battalion on duty, proceeding to AIF HQ via Folkestone reporting to HQ London, on Christmas Day 1918. His return to Australia on duty was aboard the 'Orsova', departing Liverpool on 8th Jan 1919 and arriving in Melbourne on 27th Feb 1919. Upon his appointment being terminated on 14th Mar, he returned to the 'Manse' McIntyre St, Hamilton, Victoria to his wife Annie and sons, John and Alan. For the next decade the Rev R C Foyster devoted himself to his ministry and civic and community duties in Hamilton. With the struggles of the 'Depression' he was an important member of the Hamilton Mayor's Unemployment Fund, up until he left the town in late 1932 for Perth, WA. He was appointed to the Ross Memorial Presbyterian Church, West Perth and set up residence at 7 Richardson St, West Perth. Whilst tending his ministry at West Perth, he was State President of a temperance movement 'Band of Hope' located in Charles St, West Perth. Sadly, on 28th January 1934, his beloved wife Annie died at the age of 51 years. Following Annie's passing the Rev Foyster moved back to Victoria, in 1934, to the charge of the Presbyterian Churches of Hopetoun and Beulah, though his sons remained in WA. Then on 6th March 1935, he remarried to Miss Gwendoline Mary Fraser (of Grange Rd, Lower Mitcham, Adelaide) at Scots Church, North Terrace, Adelaide. In 1937 the Rev Foyster and his wife returned to Hamilton, Victoria, and in June of that year he became the editor of the 'Hamilton Spectator'. A son, Robert Fraser Foyster, was born at Hamilton in May 1938 to Robert and Gwen. In 1941, they had moved to the township of Cressy, Victoria, and Rev Robert Causton Foyster, again enlisted, though this time with the RAAF at the Cressy Air Base. Post war they moved to Burnley, Melbourne, in 1945, living at 15 Park St, Burnley, until his retirement in 1954.

Rev Robert Causton Foyster died at Heidelberg on 11th June 1970, aged 88 years and was buried in the Springvale Botanical Cemetery, Springvale, Victoria.

Re Pte Thomas Joseph Gough: "Thomas Joseph Gough was in AII, and his number was 5017. I know him intimately. Before the war he was an accountant for Allan & Stark in Queen St, Brisbane. He lived at Woolston. I was told by L/Cpl William Lesley, attached to 'A' Coy, that he had seen Gough on the 26th Sept at Polygon Wood, killed by shell fire. This occurred about 8am. Gough was buried near where he fell and there was a cross put on top of him."

"He was a Sgt and belonged to XIV Platoon, 'D' Coy. We knew him as 'Bill'. He was in our front trench at Fleurbaix before we went into the charge on 19th July, and was killed outright by a shrapnel shell. We left his body there when we went into the charge and I did not see it when we returned. He came from N Melbourne, and was a short, nuggety man. He was one of the finest fellows I have met in my life." Pte 911 E Long, 'D' Coy, 31st Bn

"Witness says soldier was a Sergeant and was killed at Fleurbaix, in the front-line trenches. Witness was alongside soldier, when he was struck by a piece of shrapnel, and killed instantly. Later he was buried at head of a sap, called Cellar Farm Cemetery." Pte 911 E Long, 'D' Coy, 31st Bn

Geelong Advertiser, Saturday 7th October 1916, page 8

Writes to a Geelong friend: -France. 30/8/18: — I have met many Geelong chaps in various units other than my own; where, of course, there is a Geelong company, or rather was; as it has been rather severely strafed on several occasions. The Geelong Company has been rather unlucky in having to bear the brunt of several encounters with the Boches. I cannot give you a detailed list of those who have fallen yet, but a number of familiar faces will be missing when the Company returns to Geelong. My brother Alan, has been wounded a little distance from where I am stationed at present. I am pleased to say that he has fallen into good hands, as he has met his aunt, Mrs R R McKenzie, in England. Leslie Hodges is away from the battalion at present, owing to sickness, but is progressing well in England. France is a beautiful country, and it seems an absolute sin to desecrate it with bloodshed. I have been impressed by the people. They are not the frivolous nation some people think. They all seem fired with patriotism of the highest order. I hardly see a case of that half-hearted fatalism of pessimism which seems to have taken hold of some of our people.

I find plenty to do whether in the trenches, or out of them, as my position of ___ means consistent work in regard to the organisation of the battalion. However, it gives a certain amount of scope for the exercise of what little legal knowledge I possess, as a large amount of the work is Court Martials, etc., falls my way. Roy Gollan, is a subaltern in the Battalion, and doing very well indeed. He shows a natural aptitude for organising work, and will go far, (in fact he has already started on the way to further promotion.) I was awfully sorry to hear of poor Billie Sayers death. I did not know he was in France until the news of his death reached me. Poor Ralph Barnfather who held a lieutenancy in the battalion is missing. He was a general favourite and doing very well. Certain well-known footballers will, I am sorry to say, will not return home. Sgt George Challis, of Carlton, (killed in a raid on our trenches by a bomb), Sgt Nolan, (Richmond), Corporal "Cherry" Douglas, (of Chiwell), little "Plugger" Landy, who played for St Mary's and Geelong. "Waxy" Campbell, of Chiwell, and others have gone down in action. "Mat" Connor, of running fame, is wounded, but I think, progressing favourably. Norman Griggis with our transport, at present. An old injury made it impossible for him to stay in the line on account of the heavy marching, so he is now a driver. Please forgive this disjointed screed, as I have been interrupted several times while writing, and with the usual accompaniments of trench warfare and various people coming in with requests for everything from a pin to a issue of rum. I really forget what I intended to write about. I will write again soon.

P.S -The "N.O.W." is seen literally in hundreds of copies in our battalion.

(Confidential Report on Major Neil Freeman, 58th Bn, AIF.

A determined officer of very cheerful disposition. He is reliable and conscientious with plenty of energy and tact. He has shewn himself quick at learning and good at imparting knowledge, and has worked hard throughout he course, always showing good initiative. He is good at handling troops and has made excellent progress during the course.

(i) He is fit to command a Battalion at once.

(ii) He would make a good instructor

I think it is a pity that this Officer should have been sent to the 2nd Army School, and then to the 4th Army School, when there were possibly Officers who had been to neither. He is fit to command a Battalion, at once.

Brig Gen R J Kentish, Commandant.)

MID: Mentioned in Sir Douglas Haig's Despatch of 7/11/17, for 'Distinguished and Gallant Services and Devotion to Duty 'in the Field' during the Period, from 26th Feb to midnight. 20th Sep 1917

(Battle of Polygon Wood, 26th/27th Sep 1917; Neil Freeman was Major, 2nd ic/ Acting CO, 58th Bn) (vice Lt Col Deneby in hospital, gassed)

Recommendation for award of MC, awarded DSO for actions: "For great gallantry whilst acting C.O. of his Battalion. On the morning of 25th September last the 58th Battalion under his Command was holding a section of our front line extending from the S.W. corner of POLYGON WOOD for a distance of about 400 yards northwards. At 5.30 am after a preliminary Artillery and Machine Gun Barrage of great intensity the enemy advanced to attack the Battalion sector and on the Sector of the British Brigade on our right. Under the strain the Middlesex Regiment holding the line on our right were compelled to give way and fall back for a distance of nearly half a mile. Major Freeman held to his front line with the greatest determination and after repulsing with great loss the enemy in his immediate front, with the aid of a Section of the 15th ALTMB, attached under Lieut GAMBLE, he pushed out his supports in advance of the original line he was holding and endeavoured to counter-attack the enemy; this bold attempt failed in its entirety owing to heavy machine gun fire from the enemy and the failure of the Brigade on our right to adequately support him but he was able to make the enemy withdraw sufficiently to establish a line echeloned to the right of the original flank without withdrawing a foot from his original position. Subsequently when I sent up Reinforcements to him, he took an active personal part in directing them into position despite the

Awarded DSO for actions: "For great gallantry and devotion to duty, when the battalion was attacked by the enemy after a preliminary bombardment of great intensity. Though his right flank was exposed by the enemy attack, he held his position with the greatest determination and repulsed the enemy, inflicting heavy casualties. When reinforcement arrived, he personally directed their dispositions under a very heavy enemy barrage, and continued to send clear and encouraging reports upon the situation. He was able eventually to close the gap on his flank and to consolidate the position. On a subsequent occasion, he rendered great assistance in supporting an attack and in consolidating a captured position. His courage and devotion to duty, were beyond all praise."

Mentioned in Bean, Page 800 Chap 19, Polygon Wood

Geelong Advertiser, Saturday 23 February 1918, page 7

Brigadier-General Elliott, writing from France under date of 26/12/17, to Mrs. F. P. Williams, hon. secretary of the 15th Brigade Comforts Depot, thanks her for gifts sent by the Geelong branch of the 15th Brigade Comforts. "Please also convey to Mrs. Freeman my congratulations on the very line work her son, Major Neil Freeman, VD, D.S.O., has accomplished. The D.S.O. was awarded in recognition of his work at Polygon Wood, and the stand his battalion made against the counter-attack made by the Germans. The army commander said that that stand alone saved the British army from a great disaster. I am very hopeful of getting the good work of your husband recognised in the coming New Year honor list; he is never weary of working for the boys. You will have heard that Lieut. Wrathall was killed whilst leading out a patrol in a most gallant manner to verify a report that the enemy were returning. He met his death in the fearless execution of a dangerous duty without hesitation or thought of himself. Kindly convey to his mother, on behalf of the officers and men of the brigade, our deepest sympathy in her sad bereavement in the loss of a son than whom there was no one more gallant with us. The 58th battalion, with which your husband and Major Freeman, are closely associated, have done magnificent service whenever the call has come to them; you have every reason to be proud of them as I have of the brigade. At Polygon Wood and Bullecourt, they faced the enemy alongside the best British troops, and in the results, the 58th stood alone."

To Paris on leave, on 29th Jun 1918

Rejoined Bn, from Paris leave, 19th Jul 1918

Promoted to Lieut Colonel, on 1st Feb 1918

Awarded Bar to DSO for actions: "This Officer was in command of the 31st Battalion in operations to the East of VILLERS BRETONNEUX on the 8th August 1918. His was one of the assaulting Battalions of this Brigade which was detailed for the second phase of the attack. He had the difficult task of pushing his Battalion through Units which took the first objective and forming up East of LA MOTTE-en- SANTERRE. The difficulty of this task was greatly enhanced by the dense fog on the morning of the attack. By his careful preliminary arrangements and personal reconnaissance, he brought his Battalion to the 'Jumping Off' line in good time and with very few casualties. During the assault itself he inspired the men to greater efforts, moving about freely in the face of heavy enemy fire issuing instructions and encouraging the troops. When on arrival at the final objective he found that the troops on his right flank had been held up, he formed a defensive flank and gave every assistance possible by supporting fire. During the operation carried out by the Brigade on 9th August, this Officer frequently made reconnaissance's of the front line and sent back very valuable information to Brigade Headquarters. His gallantry and capable leadership throughout was of a very high standard."

Awarded MM for actions:

On 18 October 1916, Percy was presented with a Military Medal by General Birdwood while the battalion was at Ridge Wood. It was for Percy's bravery while carrying messages during a heavy barrage when they were at Pozieres. Percy didn't know he would be receiving it and was very surprised. Chaplin Ingamells from Coleraine saw Percy receiving his medal and reported home how very proud of Percy he was. He said as Percy relayed messages he was buried two or three times and received a wound to his leg from a shell but did his duty and "never flinched".

William Richard FURMSTON has possibly the unenviable distinction of being one of the last men to fall in action with the Battalion. After suffering sickness (mumps) and being gassed whilst in action in Oct 1917, he'd recovered to rejoin III Platoon in June 1918. Having served during the battles of August and September, he was struck by MG fire whilst reconnoitering enemy positions at Joncourt. Although buried on the field, his grave was not registered and was lost. Though we still remember him.
